ITEM 8.01 Other Events

On July 22, 2010, Southern Copper Corporation received a non-binding proposal from its parent company Americas Mining Corporation (AMC) offering to effect an all-stock business combination of Southern Copper Corporation and AMC, the parent company of ASARCO, LLC, in which all public stockholders of Southern Copper Corporation would receive common shares of AMC in exchange for their shares of Southern Copper Corporation. Under the proposal presented by AMC, the stock of AMC would be registered and listed on both the New York Stock Exchange and the Lima Stock Exchange.

The board of directors of Southern Copper Corporation is in the process of appointing a special committee of independent directors to evaluate the merits of this proposal and intends to announce the formation and makeup of this committee in the near term. This special committee when formed will be granted the authority to retain advisors, including legal and financial advisors.

If the proposed transaction is consummated, Southern Copper Corporation's public stockholders would have an indirect ownership interest in both Southern Copper Corporation and ASARCO, LLC, through their ownership of AMC shares.

Attached as an exhibit to this Form 8-K is a copy of the proposal letter from AMC.
