The email below was sent to certain employees of E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company (DuPont) on May 6, 2015:

An all-employee message from Ellen Kullman, Chair and CEO of DuPont.

Dear Colleagues:

I want to thank you once again for your support and commitment during the past few months. For me, the focus and support that you have demonstrated during this proxy contest has been a powerful reminder of the extraordinary privilege it is to be part of this great company.

Yesterday, I issued a final letter to shareholders [hyperlink] in advance of our Annual Meeting next week. I ask you to take a moment to read it and to reflect on all that we have accomplished together. Our ongoing business is already delivering strong, more stable growth. The separation of Chemours in July, coupled with our organization-wide drive to streamline operations, makes 2015 a landmark year as we become the next generation DuPont.

Linked to our substantial progress is the imperative to continue it. That is why our shareholders' vote in this proxy context is so important so that we have the opportunity to complete the transformation to a higher growth, higher value company that we have all worked so hard to drive.

I urge those of you who are shareholders to vote today FOR all 12 of DuPont's director nominees on the WHITE proxy card, so that we can ensure that our world-class Board can continue to oversee our successful strategy. Given that time is of the essence, we encourage you to vote by telephone or Internet. Your vote is important, no matter how few or how many shares you own.

If you have any questions at all about the voting process, please contact the firm assisting us on this matter: Innisfree M&A Incorporated at (877) 750-9501 (toll free from the U.S. and Canada) or (412) 232-3651 (from other locations).

Voting is quick and easy. We have created a simple infographic [hyperlink] to address a few frequently asked questions.

We have important work ahead of us. I look forward to visiting with more of you in the weeks and months following the Annual Meeting to share the story of the next generation DuPont, and to see how you are making it come to life for our customers and for everyone who relies on the leadership and innovation of DuPont.

Thank you, again, for everything you do.

Ellen
