Yes  No

If the answer is no, identify report(s)

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the three months ended December 31, 2001, sales are estimated to be $42.7 million compared to $34.3 million for the same period of the prior fiscal year. Net loss for the three months ended December 31, 2001 is estimated to be in a range of $8.0 million to $11.0 million, or $0.67 to $0.92 per diluted share, compared to net income of $3.1 million or $0.35 per diluted share, for the same period during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2001. Final results for the period could differ from those estimates above depending on, among other things, the need, to restate the results of the prior period. The loss for the quarter resulted primarily from continued underutilization of manufacturing facilities, charges to reflect revised accounting for costing of inventory, lower sales in our organic consumer and sensor businesses, investments in other revenue generating initiatives, and the continuing high, nonrecurring costs to integrate acquired companies with our China facility.
