Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 19 2008, Southwall Technologies Inc. (“Southwall”) entered into a new Credit Agreement with Wells Fargo Bank (“Bank”). The Credit Agreement provides for a facility that is a $3 million revolving line of credit under which we may, from time to time, borrow up to 85% of eligible accounts receivables. Amounts borrowed under the facility bear interest at prime plus 0.75% annualized on the average daily finance amount outstanding. All borrowings under the facilities are collateralized by our assets in the United States and are subject to certain covenants including a minimum cumulative quarterly net income, minimum net worth and a maximum annual cap on unfinanced capital expenditures.

The terms of the Credit Agreement, among other things, limit our ability to (i) incur, assume or guarantee additional indebtedness (other than pursuant to the Credit Agreement), (ii) incur liens upon the collateral pledged to the bank , and (iii) merge, consolidate, sell or otherwise dispose of substantially or a substantial or material portion of our assets.

The Credit Agreement provides for events of default, which include, amount others, (a) nonpayment of amounts when due (b) the breach of our representations or covenants or other agreements in the Credit Agreement of related documents (c) defaults or acceleration of our other indebtedness, (d) the occurrence of any events or condition that the Bank believes impairs or is substantially likely to impair the prospects of payment of performance by us, and (e) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization. Generally, if any event of default occurs, the Bank may declare all outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Agreement to be due and payable.

The maturity date of the facilities is May 19, 2009.

The description above is a summary of the terms of the credit agreement by and between Southwall and Wells Fargo Bank and does not purport to be a complete description of the agreement.

Item 1.02

On March 28, 2008, Southwall’s Credit Agreement with Bridge Bank, NA expired. On March 28, 2008, there was no principal and interest outstanding. Bridge Bank has released its security interests in Southwall assets.
