Smith & Nephew
and Plus vendors renegotiate
purchase agreement

22 January 2009

Smith & Nephew
plc
(LSE: SN, NYSE: SNN), the global medical technology business, announces that it has renegotiated, with the vendors of Plus Orthopedics Holding AG ("Plus"), the original purchase agreement for Plus.

Smith & Nephew and the vendors of Plus have reached an agreement to reduce the total original purchase price by CHF 159 million ($141 million) from CHF 1086 million ($889 million at then prevailing rates) paid in May 2007. As part of the agreement the parties have resolved their disputes on the contractual purchase price adjustments. In addition, Smith & Nephew is releasing the vendors from substantially all of their warranties, including those relating to taxation, under the original purchase agreement and has dropped all existing claims under the original warranties.

Commenting on the settlement, David Illingworth, Chief Executive of Smith & Nephew, said:

"I am very pleased that we have reached this agreement with the vendors of Plus.

The strategic logic behind the acquisition remains intact. Our enlarged European business is well on its way to realising its potential, through the hard work of our employees as they focus on delivering the best outcomes for patients and service to our customers."
