Please note that as more information becomes available, Infonet will update this question and answer section of the Investor Relations Web site. Additional information is also available in the news release issued on November 8, 2004 and through Infonet's filings with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: The merger is a transaction in which BT Group plc (BT) will acquire Infonet's outstanding Class A common stock and Class B common stock. The merger is subject to approval by Infonet's stockholders, the receipt of approvals from antitrust authorities, the U.S. Federal Communications Commission and other customary closing conditions.

Q: If you complete the merger, how much will I receive for my shares?

A: Under terms of the acquisition agreement, stockholders will receive $2.06 in cash for each common share of Infonet Services held.

Q: If you complete the merger, when will I receive my money?

A: The transaction is subject to approval by Infonet's stockholders, certain regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions. We anticipate it will be completed in the first half of 2005. You will receive instructions on how to submit your shares following the completion of the merger.

Q: Will I have to pay taxes on the cash received? How will I know what my profit or loss is? Who can help me with this?

A: Each stockholder must consult his or her own tax advisors.

Q: Will I receive proxy materials and be asked to vote?

A: Yes. Our timetable currently anticipates closing this transaction in the spring of 2005. We currently anticipate mailing proxy materials to stockholders in January 2005. If that schedule changes, we will post an updated timetable for this question, so please check back. We urge you to carefully study all the materials available to you. We urge stockholders to read the proxy statement when it becomes available.

Q: What should I do with my shares?

A: Please do not send your shares at this time. After we complete the merger, the paying agent, at BT's request, will send you written instructions for returning your Infonet stock certificates. You will receive your cash payment after the paying agent receives your stock certificates and any other documents requested in the instructions.

Q: Will there be a regulatory review of this transaction?

A: Yes, the transaction is subject to review under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act by U.S. antitrust authorities and may be reviewed by EU antitrust authorities. The merger is also subject to approval by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission. We will update this answer as more information becomes available.

Q: Will Infonet's management continue to run the company?

A: BT has informed us that Infonet's management will continue in place as will our operating staff. Infonet is being acquired for its expertise and leadership in the area of managed data network services. Continuity of that expertise is an important component of this acquisition.

Q: Are you planning any facility closures? Employee layoffs?

A: No plans have been developed at this time for any consolidations or eliminations of any resources.

Q: Where can I find more information about Infonet and BT?

A: Infonet and BT file periodic reports and other information with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. This information is available at the Internet Site maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>. It can also be accessed through investor relations portion of the infonet Web site: www.infonet.com.
