Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Cargill, Incorporated and its affiliates other than The Mosaic Company ( Mosaic ) and its subsidiaries (collectively Cargill ) own approximately 65.3% of the outstanding Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of Mosaic.

In connection with the business combination (the Combination ) of IMC Global Inc. ( IMC ) and the fertilizer businesses of Cargill on October 22, 2004, in which Mosaic was formed, Mosaic entered into an Investor Rights Agreement with Cargill dated as of January 26, 2004 and amended on October 22, 2004 (the Investor Rights Agreement ). The Investor Rights Agreement, among other things, contractually establishes certain parameters for the Board of Directors (the Board ) and Board committee structure of Mosaic, as well as restricting Cargill from taking certain unilateral actions as controlling stockholder, during a four year standstill period that will expire on October 22, 2008.

On August 17, 2006, Mosaic and Cargill further amended the Investor Rights Agreement, and Mosaic amended its Bylaws to the extent necessary to reflect the amendments to the Investor Rights Agreement. Following is a summary of the principal amendments to the Investor Rights Agreement and, to the extent applicable, Mosaic s Bylaws. The summary is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Investor Rights Agreement and Mosaic s Bylaws, each as so amended and restated, which are filed as Exhibits 10.ii. and 3.ii., respectively, to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

The definition of Non-Associated Director was updated to conform to the current standards of The New York Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission for determining the independence of directors.

Effective with the election of directors at Mosaic s 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the size of the Board will be expanded from eleven to twelve directors. The twelfth director will be required to be approved by Mosaic s Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and a majority of the IMC Directors (defined as the Mosaic director nominees designated by IMC or any replacement director nominees designated by such IMC director nominees or their duly elected replacements).

The size of the Board may be further expanded by the Board, subject to the consent of a majority of the IMC Directors and, for any expansion of the Board of Directors beyond 13 members, the consent of Cargill. Any such additional director must be a Non-Associated Director appointed or nominated by the Board.

Mosaic s obligation to take commercially reasonable actions to assure that a portion of the seven directors nominated by Cargill are Non-Associated Directors is reduced from four directors to three directors.

A requirement that each Committee of the Board be composed of at least five directors was eliminated.

The provisions relating to allocation of the directors among the three classes of directors was amended to provide that additional directors, if any, shall be apportioned among the three classes so as to maintain the number of directors in each class as nearly equal as possible.

The requirement as to the number of Cargill Directors on the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee was reduced so that three are required only if practicable; otherwise, only two are required. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will continue to include two IMC Directors. Other committees of the Board (other than the Special Transactions Committee as described below) will generally continue to include at least two IMC Directors; however, a majority of the IMC Directors may approve a lower number of IMC Directors on a committee.

The provisions relating to approval of transactions with Cargill by a Special Transactions Committee comprised of IMC Directors who are Non-Associated Directors were amended to clarify that the Special Transactions Committee may (i) delegate its authority to a committee of senior management of Mosaic and (ii) adopt policies, guidelines or procedures with respect to approval of transactions with Cargill.
