NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(All dollar amounts included in the notes are stated in thousands except per share data.)

(Unaudited)

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited consolidated balance sheet and the related unaudited consolidated statements of income and cash flows have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. The consolidated financial statements do not include all information and notes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. The balance sheet as of December 31, 2009 has been derived from the 2009 financial statements of Barnes Group Inc. (the "Company"). For additional information, please refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, including normal recurring accruals considered necessary for a fair presentation, have been included. Operating results for the three-month period ended March 31, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2010. Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year amounts to conform to the current year presentation.

2. Net Income Per Common Share

For the purpose of computing diluted net income per share, the weighted-average number of shares outstanding is increased for the potential dilutive effects of stock-based incentive plans and convertible senior subordinated notes. For the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009, the weighted-average number of shares was increased by 571,662 and 173,401, respectively, for the potential dilutive effect of stock-based incentive plans. There were no adjustments to net income for the purposes of computing income available to common stockholders for those periods.

The calculation of weighted-average diluted shares outstanding excludes all anti-dilutive shares. During the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009, the Company excluded 2,006,255 and 4,874,188 stock options, respectively, from the calculation of weighted-average diluted shares outstanding as the stock options were considered anti-dilutive.

The Company granted 519,200 stock options, 260,417 restricted stock unit awards, and 101,100 performance unit plan awards in February 2010 as part of its annual grant award. Of the 260,417 restricted stock unit awards, 1,600 vest upon satisfying established performance goals and 258,817 vest upon meeting certain service conditions. All of the restricted stock unit awards that vest upon meeting certain service conditions are included in basic average common shares outstanding as they contain nonforfeitable rights to dividend payments. The performance unit plan awards are denominated in units with each unit being equivalent in value to one share of the Company's common stock and are payable in cash. The performance unit plan awards vest upon satisfying established performance goals and are not included in either basic or diluted average common shares outstanding as these awards are settled in cash.

The 3.75% convertible senior subordinated notes due in August 2025 (the "3.75% Convertible Notes") are convertible, under certain circumstances, into a combination of cash and common stock of the Company. The conversion price as of March 31, 2010 was approximately $20.62 per share of common stock. The dilutive effect of the notes is determined based on the average closing price of the Company's stock for the last 30 trading days of the quarter as compared to the conversion price of the notes. Under the net share settlement method, there were no potential shares issuable under the notes as the notes were considered anti-dilutive for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009.

The 3.375% convertible senior subordinated notes due in March 2027 (the "3.375% Convertible Notes") are convertible, under certain circumstances, into a combination of cash and common stock of the Company. The conversion price as of March 31, 2010 was approximately $28.31 per share of common stock. The dilutive effect of the notes is determined based on the average closing price of the Company's stock for the last 30 trading days of the quarter as compared to the conversion price of the notes. Under the net share settlement method, there were no potential shares issuable under the notes as the notes were considered anti-dilutive for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009.

Table of Contents3. Comprehensive Income

Amortization of intangible assets is expected to increase from approximately $14,300 in 2010 to $14,800 in 2014.

6. Business Reorganizations

In the third quarter of 2009, the Company authorized the restructuring of certain operations of the Precision Components segment by moving the operations of two facilities, Burlington, Ontario, Canada (the Burlington Facility) and Monterrey, Mexico (the Monterrey Facility). The assets and related work of these facilities have been substantially transferred to other Precision Components facilities in the United States to create a more cost effective manufacturing footprint. The movement of operations for the Burlington Facility was substantially completed by March 31, 2010. The movement of assets at the previously idled Monterrey Facility was completed by December 31, 2009. The Company recorded restructuring and related costs of $4,904 in 2009 related to these actions which included $2,140 of employee termination costs, $1,107 of asset write-downs, $487 of equipment transfer costs, $970 of facility use termination costs and $200 of pension curtailment costs. The Company expects to incur approximately $1,600 related to equipment transfer expenses and other related costs in 2010 and beyond and recorded $637 of these costs in the first quarter of 2010. The Company also expects to incur costs related to the 2009 and prior actions of up to $4,000 related to pension costs, in large part due to the accelerated recognition of actuarial losses, which may be incurred in 2010 or later. In addition, during 2009, the Company implemented other workforce reduction actions at Precision Components and recorded severance expense of $3,358 primarily in the second quarter of 2009. Costs related to the 2009 actions are primarily recorded in selling and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of income.

The following table sets forth the change in the liability for the 2009 employee termination actions at Precision Components:

January 1, 2010	$ 3,337
Severance expense, net	(33)
Payments	(495)
Foreign currency translation	(14)
March 31, 2010	$ 2,795

The remaining balance is expected to be paid in 2010.

In 2008, the Company implemented certain right-sizing actions, including workforce reductions and plant consolidations, at both business segments. As a result of these actions, the Company recorded an additional $2,448 of costs in 2009 at Precision Components related to transfer of work and facility exits, $116 of which was recorded in the first quarter of 2009. These costs are primarily recorded in selling and administrative expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of income. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had recorded a liability of $167 at Precision Components related to 2008 actions. These actions were substantially complete as of December 31, 2009.

Edgar Filing: BARNES GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth the change in the liability for 2008 employee termination actions at Logistics and Manufacturing Services:

January 1, 2010	$ 1,467
Severance expense, net	(4)
Payments	(413)
Foreign currency translation	(85)
March 31, 2010	$ 965

The remaining balances are expected to be paid in 2010.

7. Debt

The Company's debt agreements contain financial covenants that require the maintenance of interest coverage and leverage ratios, and minimum levels of net worth. The Company is in compliance with its debt covenants as of March 31, 2010, and closely monitors its future compliance based on current and anticipated future economic conditions.

The 3.75% Convertible Notes are subject to redemption at their par value at any time, at the option of the Company, on or after February 7, 2011. The note holders may also require the Company to redeem some or all of the Notes at their par value on February 1st of 2011, 2016 and 2021. As such, the Company has classified the balance of the 3.75% Convertible Notes of $89,477 ($92,500 par value) and the related deferred tax balances as current in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2010. However, if any of the 3.75% Convertible Notes are redeemed on February 1, 2011, the Company intends to finance the redemption through the use of its available credit facilities which expire in September 2012.

The 3.375% Convertible Notes are subject to redemption at their par value at any time, at the option of the Company, on or after March 20, 2014. The note holders may also require the Company to redeem some or all of the Notes at their par value on March 15th of 2014, 2017 and 2022.

The 3.75% Convertible Notes and the 3.375% Convertible Notes are also eligible for conversion upon meeting certain conditions as provided in the respective indenture agreements. The eligibility for conversion is determined quarterly. During the first quarter of 2010, neither the 3.75% Convertible Notes nor the 3.375% Convertible Notes were eligible for conversion. During the second quarter of 2010, neither of the Convertible Notes will be eligible for conversion.

In January 2010, the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. entered into an amendment to the Company's $35,000 unsecured credit agreement dated July 1, 2009 to reduce the interest rate applicable to the Eurocurrency loans from the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 4.25% to LIBOR plus 2.75%. The interest rate for the base rate loans remains unchanged. All other provisions of this credit agreement continue in full force and effect.

8. Derivatives

The Company has manufacturing, sales and distribution facilities around the world and thus makes investments and conducts business transactions denominated in various currencies. The Company is also exposed to fluctuations in interest rates and commodity price changes. These financial exposures are monitored and managed by the Company as an integral part of its risk management program.

The Company uses financial instruments to hedge its exposures to fluctuations in interest rates. The Company currently has two, three-year interest rate swap agreements expiring in March 2011 which together convert the interest on the first $100,000 of the Company's one-month LIBOR-based borrowings from a variable rate plus the borrowing spread to a fixed rate of 2.947% plus the borrowing spread which is accounted for as a cash flow hedge.

The Company also uses financial instruments to hedge its exposures to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. The Company has various contracts outstanding which primarily hedge recognized assets or liabilities, and anticipated transactions in various currencies including the British pound sterling, Canadian dollar, Euro, Singapore dollar, Swedish krona and Swiss franc. Certain foreign currency derivative instruments are treated as cash flow hedges of forecasted transactions. All foreign exchange contracts are due within one year.

Table of Contents

Net investment hedges have been used by the Company to mitigate exposure to foreign currency volatility on its future return on capital however the Company did not have any net investment hedges outstanding for any periods presented.

The Company does not use derivatives for speculative or trading purposes or to manage commodity exposures.

Changes in the fair market value of derivatives that qualify as fair value hedges or cash flow hedges are recorded directly to earnings or accumulated other non-owner changes to equity, depending on the designation. Amounts recorded to accumulated other non-owner changes to equity are reclassified to earnings in a manner that matches the earnings impact of the hedged transaction. Any ineffective portion, or amounts related to contracts that are not designated as hedges, are recorded directly to earnings. For a derivative used as a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation, the changes in the derivative's fair value, to the extent that the derivative is effective as a hedge, are recorded in the foreign currency translation component of accumulated other non-owner changes to equity.

The following table sets forth the fair value amounts of derivative instruments held by the Company.

	March 31, 2010		December 31, 2009
	Asset Derivatives	Liability Derivatives	Asset Derivatives	Liability Derivatives
Derivatives designated as hedging instruments:
Interest rate contracts	$	$ (2,487)	$	$ (2,700)
Foreign exchange contracts	61			(147)
	61	(2,487)		(2,847)
Derivatives not designated as hedging instruments:
Foreign exchange contracts	193		1	(1,636)
Total derivatives	$ 254	$ (2,487)	$ 1	$ (4,483)

Asset derivatives are recorded in prepaid expenses and other current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Liability derivatives related to interest rate contracts and foreign exchange contracts are recorded in other liabilities and accrued liabilities, respectively, in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

The following table sets forth the gain (loss) recorded in other comprehensive income, net of tax, for the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 for derivatives held by the Company.

Derivatives in hedging relationships	2010	2009
Cash flow hedges:
Interest rate contracts	$ 132	$ (90)
Foreign exchange contracts	(13)	(182)
	$ 119	$ (272)

Amounts included within accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) that were reclassified to income during the first quarter of 2010 resulted in a fixed rate of interest of 2.947% plus the borrowing spread for the first $100,000 of one-month LIBOR borrowings. The amounts reclassified for the foreign exchange contracts were not material. Additionally, there were no amounts recognized in income for hedge ineffectiveness during the three months ended March 31, 2010.

The following table sets forth the gain (loss) recorded in other income (expense) in the consolidated statements of income for the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 for derivatives held by the Company. Such amounts were substantially offset by gains (losses) recorded on the underlying hedged asset or liability.

9. Fair Value Measurements

The provisions of the accounting standard for fair value define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. This standard classifies the inputs used to measure fair value into the following hierarchy:

- Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, or unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability

Level 3 Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability

The following table provides the financial assets and financial liabilities reported at fair value and measured on a recurring basis:

Description	Total	Fair Value Measurements Using
		Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
March 31, 2010
Asset derivatives	$ 254	$	$ 254	$
Liability derivatives	(2,487)		(2,487)
Rabbi trust assets	1,489	1,489
	$ (744)	$ 1,489	$ (2,233)	$
December 31, 2009
Asset derivatives	$ 1	$	$ 1	$
Liability derivatives	(4,483)		(4,483)
Rabbi trust assets	1,431	1,431
	$ (3,051)	$ 1,431	$ (4,482)	$

The fair value for the derivative contracts are valued with a discounted cash flow model using observable current market information as of the reporting date such as the prevailing LIBOR-based and U.S. treasury interest rates and foreign currency spot and forward rates. The fair values of rabbi trust assets are based on quoted market prices from various financial exchanges.

As disclosed within the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, the fair values of the 3.75% Convertible Notes and 3.375% Convertible Notes were approximately $96,570 and $50,573, respectively. As of March 31, 2010, the fair values of the 3.75% Convertible Notes and the 3.375% Convertible Notes were approximately $99,044 and $51,789, respectively.

Table of Contents10. Pension and Other Postretirement Benefits

Pension and other postretirement benefits expenses consisted of the following:

For the three months ended March 31,	Pensions		Other Postretirement Benefits
	2010	2009	2010	2009
Service cost	$ 1,707	$ 1,880	$ 126	$ 116

Curtailment gain			(987)
Net periodic benefit cost (income)	$ 482	$ 596	$ (160)	$ 871

The Company recorded a curtailment gain in one of its other postretirement benefit plans during the first quarter of 2010 in connection with the closure of a facility within the Precision Components segment.

11. Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the first quarter of 2010 was 16.8%. In 2009, the Company's effective tax rate was 18.7% in the first quarter and 2.4% for the full year. The increase in the first quarter 2010 effective tax rate from the full year 2009 rate was primarily driven by the projected shift in the mix of income to higher-taxing jurisdictions and the impact of the expected repatriation of a portion of current year foreign earnings to the U.S.

The Company's aerospace aftermarket business within the Logistics and Manufacturing Services segment has been awarded a two-year extension of Pioneer Status by the Republic of Singapore's Ministry of Trade and Industry for certain of its Revenue Sharing Programs. The Pioneer tax status is now awarded for periods of seven to nine years from the effective dates and is scheduled to begin to expire in late 2012. The multi-year Pioneer tax status provides tax benefits in exchange for capital investment and employment commitments for the production of certain engine components for original equipment manufacturers and the spare parts market.

13. Commitments and Contingencies

Product Warranties

The Company provides product warranties in connection with the sale of products. From time to time, the Company is subject to customer claims with respect to product warranties. Product warranty liabilities were not significant as of March 31, 2010 and 2009.

The Company has been named in a lawsuit arising out of an alleged breach of contract and implied warranty by a customer of Toolcom Suppliers Limited (Toolcom), a division of the Logistics and Manufacturing Services segment, related to the sale of certain products prior to the Company's 2005 acquisition of Toolcom. The plaintiff asserts that certain products sold were not fit for a particular use and claims approximately 5,500 pounds sterling (approximately $8,300) in damages, plus interest and costs. The Company intends to vigorously defend its position. The Company cannot make a reasonable estimate of loss at this time; accordingly, no liability has been recorded.

Income Taxes

In connection with an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) audit for the tax years 2000 through 2002, the IRS proposed adjustments to these tax years of approximately $16,500, plus a potential penalty of 20% of the tax assessment plus interest. The adjustment relates to the federal taxation of foreign income of certain foreign subsidiaries. The Company filed an administrative protest of these adjustments. In the third quarter of 2009, the Company was informed that its protest was denied and a tax assessment was received from the Appeals Office of the IRS. In November 2009, the Company filed a petition against the IRS in the U.S. Tax Court contesting the tax assessment received. The Company continues to believe its tax position on the issues raised by the IRS is correct and the Company plans to continue to take appropriate actions to vigorously defend its position. The Company believes it will prevail on this issue. Any additional impact on the Company's liability for income taxes cannot presently be determined, but the Company continues to believe it is adequately provided for and the outcome will not have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

14. Accounting Changes

In January 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2010-6 Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements . This update requires interim disclosures regarding significant transfers in and out of Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements. Additionally, this ASU requires disclosure for each class of assets and liabilities and disclosures about the valuation techniques and inputs used to measure fair value for both recurring and non-recurring fair value measurements. These disclosures are required for fair value measurements that fall in either Level 2 or Level 3. Further, the ASU requires separate presentation of Level 3 activity for the fair value measurements. The Company adopted the provisions of this update in the first quarter of 2010, with the exception of the separate presentation in the Level 3 activity rollforward, which is not effective until fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010 and for interim periods within those fiscal years.

With respect to the unaudited consolidated financial information of Barnes Group Inc. for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP reported that they have applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of such information. However, their separate report dated April 30, 2010 appearing herein, states that they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that unaudited consolidated financial information. Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their report should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, for their report on the unaudited consolidated financial information because that report is not a report or a part of the registration statement prepared or certified by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Barnes Group Inc.

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Barnes Group Inc. and its subsidiaries as of March 31, 2010, and the related consolidated statements of income for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and March 31, 2009 and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2010 and March 31, 2009. This interim financial information is the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying consolidated interim financial information for it to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2009, and the related consolidated statements of income, and of cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein), and in our report dated February 22, 2010 (which included an explanatory paragraph with respect to the Company's change in the manner of accounting for uncertain tax positions and certain convertible debt instruments), we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2009, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

Table of ContentsItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations*OVERVIEW

Please refer to the Overview found in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. The Annual Report on Form 10-K and other documents related to the Company are located on the Company's website: www.bginc.com. This Overview sets forth key management objectives and key performance indicators used by management as well as key industry and economic data tracked by management.

First Quarter 2010 Highlights

In the first quarter of 2010, sales grew 6.1% from the first quarter of 2009 to $278.1 million primarily as a result of organic sales growth at Precision Components. Operating income decreased 3.9% to $19.7 million primarily as a result of the shift in sales mix due to the decrease in the higher margin aerospace aftermarket business.

Both of the Company's business segments continued to be impacted during the first quarter of 2010 by the states of the end-markets served by the Company. At Precision Components, the industrial manufacturing businesses were favorably impacted by increased production in the transportation and industrial end markets while demand in the aerospace market decreased slightly. In the Logistics and Manufacturing Services segment, the aftermarket aerospace business continued to be unfavorably impacted by the deferred maintenance and lower aircraft utilization while the distribution businesses were negatively impacted by lower activity in many of the end-markets it serves.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONSSales

Intersegment sales	(2.9)	(1.7)	(1.2)	(70.3)%
Total	$ 278.1	$ 262.2	$ 16.0	6.1%

The Company reported net sales of $278.1 million in the first quarter of 2010, an increase of $16.0 million or 6.1%, from the first quarter of 2009. The sales increase reflected $8.7 million of organic sales increases reflecting an increase of $20.8 million at Precision Components partially offset by a decline of $10.9 million at Logistics and Manufacturing Services. The weakening of the U.S. dollar against foreign currencies, primarily in Europe, Canada and Brazil, increased net sales by approximately $7.3 million in the first quarter of 2010 of which $3.8 million related to Precision Components and $3.5 million related to Logistics and Manufacturing Services.

Table of Contents

Cost of sales in the first quarter of 2010 increased 6.5% from the 2009 period. This increase was slightly higher than the percentage increase in sales and resulted in a reduction in gross profit margin from 36.2% in the 2009 period to 36.0% in the 2010 period. Selling and administrative expenses in the first quarter of 2010 increased 7.9% from the first quarter of 2009. The increases in costs of sales and selling and administrative expenses were impacted by the increase in sales and the shift in sales mix due to the decrease in the higher margin aerospace aftermarket business. Additionally, selling and administrative expenses increased as a result of higher employee related costs, including employee incentive compensation. As a result, operating income in the first quarter of 2010 decreased 3.9% to $19.7 million from the first quarter of 2009 and operating income margin declined from 7.8% to 7.1%.

Other Income/Expense

Other expenses, net of other income, decreased $0.1 million in the first quarter of 2010 compared to the same period of 2009. Interest expense decreased $0.8 million in the first quarter of 2010 primarily as a result of lower borrowings compared to the first quarter of 2009.

Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate was 16.8% for the first quarter of 2010, compared with 18.7% in the first quarter of 2009 and 2.4% for the full year 2009. The increase in the first quarter 2010 effective tax rate from the full year 2009 rate was primarily driven by the projected shift in the mix of income to higher-taxing jurisdictions and the impact of the expected repatriation of a portion of current year foreign earnings to the U.S.

In connection with an IRS audit for the tax years 2000 through 2002, the IRS proposed adjustments to these tax years of approximately $16,500, plus a potential penalty of 20% of the tax assessment plus interest. The adjustment relates to the federal taxation of foreign income of certain foreign subsidiaries. The Company filed an administrative protest of these adjustments. In the third quarter of 2009, the Company was informed that its protest was denied and a tax assessment was received from the Appeals Office of the IRS. In November 2009, the Company filed a petition against the IRS in the U.S. Tax Court contesting the tax assessment received. The Company continues to believe its tax position on the issues raised by the IRS is correct and the Company plans to continue to take appropriate actions to vigorously defend its position. The Company believes it will prevail on this issue. Any additional impact on the Company's liability for income taxes cannot presently be determined, but the Company continues to believe it is adequately provided for and the outcome will not have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

Net Income and Net Income per Share

(in millions, except per share)	Three months ended
	2010	2009	Change
Net income	$ 11.8	$ 11.5	$ 0.4	3.2%

Weighted average common shares outstanding:
Basic	55.4	52.7	2.7	5.0%
Diluted	56.0	52.9	3.1	5.8%

In the first quarter of 2010, basic and diluted net income per common share decreased 4.5% from the first quarter of 2009. Basic weighted average shares outstanding increased primarily as a result of 1,154,265 shares and 737,463 shares of treasury stock used to repurchase certain of the Company's convertible notes in 2009 and for contributions to the Company's pension plans in the second quarter of 2009, respectively, as well as shares issued for employee stock plans. Diluted weighted average shares outstanding increased as a result of the increase in basic weighted average shares outstanding and an increase in the dilutive effect of potentially issuable shares under the employee stock plans which was driven by an increase in the Company's stock price.

Table of ContentsFinancial Performance by Business Segment*Logistics and Manufacturing Services

(in millions)	Three months ended March 31,		Change
	2010	2009
Sales	$ 135.3	$ 142.7	$ (7.4)	(5.2)%
Operating profit	8.3	14.5	(6.1)	(42.4)%
Operating margin	6.2%	10.1%

The Logistics and Manufacturing Services segment reported sales of $135.3 million in the first quarter of 2010, a 5.2% decrease from the 2009 first quarter. The lower sales resulted primarily from lower organic sales of $10.9 million primarily in the aerospace aftermarket business driven by lower aircraft utilization, deferred maintenance activities and an increase in RSP management fees. To a lesser extent, organic sales declines in the distribution business, primarily in North America, resulted from lower activity in the markets these businesses serve. The positive impact on sales of foreign currency translation increased sales by approximately $3.5 million as the U.S. dollar weakened against foreign currencies primarily in Europe and Canada.

Operating profit at Logistics and Manufacturing Services in the first quarter of 2010 decreased 42.4% from the first quarter of 2009 to $8.3 million. The decline was driven by the profit impact of the lower sales volumes primarily in the aerospace aftermarket and distribution businesses. Partially offsetting these declines was the impact of the lower cost structures resulting from previous actions primarily in the distribution businesses.

Outlook: Organic sales levels in the distribution businesses of the Logistics and Manufacturing Services segment are largely dependent upon the economy in the regions served, the retention of its customers and continuation of existing sales volumes to such customers, and the effectiveness and size of its sales force. Near-term economic conditions remain uncertain and customers continue to actively manage costs and inventory levels. Management believes future sales growth will result from improvements in economic and end-market conditions, further market penetration and sales force productivity initiatives, including increasing the sales force size. Near-term sales levels in the aerospace aftermarket business are expected to continue to be impacted by deferred maintenance activities and lower capacity usage within the industry. Management believes its aerospace aftermarket business is favorably positioned based on strong customer relationships including long-term maintenance and repair contracts in the overhaul and repair business, expected improvement in demand in the aftermarket businesses, and current capacity levels.

Operating profit at Logistics and Manufacturing Services is expected to continue to be affected by the profit impact of the changes in sales volume in each of its businesses as well as pricing pressures. Profitability is expected to be favorably impacted by structural changes made in the distribution businesses and other cost control efforts. The highly profitable aftermarket RSPs will continue to be impacted by the management fees payable to the customer which generally increase in the fourth or later years of each program. These and other similar fees are deducted from sales and temper sales growth of the aftermarket RSPs and operating margin.

Precision Components

(in millions)	Three months ended March 31,		Change
	2010	2009
Sales	$ 145.8	$ 121.2	$ 24.6	20.3%
Operating profit	11.3	6.0	5.3	88.9%
Operating margin	7.8%	5.0%

Sales at Precision Components were $145.8 million in the first quarter of 2010, a 20.3% increase from the first quarter of 2009, due primarily to organic sales increases of $20.8 million. The organic sales growth was driven by increases in the industrial manufacturing businesses in North America and Europe and from improvements in the transportation industry, including automotive. Sales in the aerospace OEM business were slightly down as compared to the first quarter of 2009. The positive impact on sales of foreign currency translation increased sales by approximately $3.8 million as the U.S. dollar weakened against foreign currencies primarily in Europe and Brazil.

Table of Contents

Operating profit in the first quarter of 2010 at Precision Components was $11.3 million, an increase of 88.9% from the 2009 first quarter due primarily to the profit impact of the higher sales levels in 2010. Additionally, operating profit in the first quarter of 2010 was positively impacted by lower cost structures resulting from previous actions and initiatives focused on cost savings and cost containment. These increases were partially offset by additional costs incurred to meet increased customer demand and higher employee incentive compensation.

Outlook: In the industrial manufacturing businesses, management is focused on generating organic sales growth by leveraging the benefits of the diversified products and industrial end markets in which its businesses have a global presence as well as gaining market share. Sales growth in the global markets served by these businesses is expected to remain uncertain due to economic conditions. Increased order and sales activity in certain end markets, including the North American transportation market, and customer inventory re-stocking may provide incremental benefits in the near-term however the sustainability of a recovery is unclear. Sales in the aerospace OEM business are driven by its commercial engine order backlog through its participation in certain strategic engine programs. Backlog in this business was $334.1 million at March 31, 2010, of which approximately 64% is expected to be shipped in the next 12 months. In the near-term, the aerospace OEM business may be impacted by adjustments of customer inventory levels, changes in production schedules or specific engine programs, and the general state of the aerospace market driven by the worldwide economy. Management believes that strong long-term aerospace industry fundamentals remain which, together with pursuing new programs and increased content levels on certain platforms, will drive future sales growth in this business.

Operating profit is largely dependant on the sales volumes within all businesses of the segment. Management expects a favorable impact on profitability and efficiency from the cost actions taken in these businesses over the past years which resulted in lower, more competitive cost structures. Management continues to focus on improving profitability through organic sales growth, pricing initiatives, and productivity and process improvements.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Management assesses the Company's liquidity in terms of its overall ability to generate cash to fund its operating and investing activities. Of particular importance in the management of liquidity are cash flows generated from operating activities, capital expenditure levels, dividends, capital stock transactions, effective utilization of surplus cash positions overseas and adequate lines of credit.

The Company's ability to generate cash from operations in excess of its internal operating needs is one of its financial strengths. Management continues to focus on cash flow and working capital management, and anticipates that operating activities in 2010 will generate adequate cash. The Company closely monitors its cash generation, usage and preservation including the management of working capital to generate cash.

The Company's 3.75% Convertible Notes are subject to redemption at their par value at any time, at the option of the Company, on or after February 7, 2011. The note holders may also require the Company to redeem some or all of the Notes on February 1st of 2011, 2016 and 2021. As such, the balance of these notes of $89.5 million ($92.5 million par value) is classified as current in the accompanying balance sheet as of March 31, 2010. However, if any of the 3.75% Convertible Notes are redeemed on February 1, 2011, the Company intends to finance the redemption through the use of its available credit facilities. The Company's 3.375% Convertible Notes are subject to redemption at their par value at any time, at the option of the Company, on or after March 20, 2014. The note holders may also require the Company to redeem some or all of the Notes on March 15th of 2014, 2017 and 2022.

Operating cash flow may be supplemented with external borrowings to meet near-term organic business expansion needs and the Company's current financial commitments. The credit markets have presented companies with significant challenges in maintaining or expanding credit facilities. The Company has assessed its credit facilities and currently expects that its bank syndicate, comprised of 15 banks, will continue to support the $400.0 million credit facility which matures in September 2012 and that Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. will continue to support the $35.0 million credit facility. At March 31, 2010, the Company has $238.0 million of unused and available for borrowings under its $400.0 million credit facility, subject to covenants in the Company's debt agreements. The Company believes its credit facilities, coupled with cash generated from operations, are adequate for its anticipated future requirements.

Table of Contents

The Company closely monitors compliance with its various debt covenants. The Company's most restrictive financial covenant (the Debt Ratio) requires the Company to maintain a ratio of Consolidated Total Debt to adjusted earnings before interest expense, income taxes, and depreciation and amortization (Adjusted EBITDA) as defined in the amended and restated revolving credit agreement of not more than 3.75 times at March 31, 2010. Any breach of covenant would result in a technical default under the revolving credit agreement and may result in the banks forcing an acceleration of this debt. The consequences of acceleration are that the Company's debt would become callable and other obligations, including the convertible notes, which are subject to the cross-acceleration provisions of the revolving credit agreement, could also become immediately due and payable. The Company has taken and continues to take actions to sustain compliance with the debt covenants primarily through strategies to increase Adjusted EBITDA or reduce debt. The actual ratio at March 31, 2010 was 3.12 times.

Any future acquisitions are expected to be financed through internal cash, borrowings and equity, or a combination thereof. Additionally, we may from time to time seek to retire or repurchase our outstanding debt through cash purchases and / or exchanges for equity securities, in open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. Such repurchases or exchanges, if any, will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity requirements, contractual restrictions and other factors.

Cash Flow

(in millions)	Three months ended
	March 31,
	2010	2009	Change
Operating activities	$ 7.8	$ 5.4	$ 2.4
Investing activities	(6.6)	(10.2)	3.6
Financing activities	(2.8)	4.5	(7.3)
Exchange rate effect	(0.5)	(0.7)	0.2
Increase (decrease) in cash	$ (2.1)	$ (1.0)	$ (1.1)

Operating activities provided $7.8 million in cash in the first three months of 2010 compared to $5.4 million in the first quarter of 2009. Compared to the first quarter of 2009, operating cash flows in the 2010 period was positively impacted by improvements in accounts receivable and accounts payable reflecting focused efforts in all businesses to collect receivables and manage payment terms with vendors. These improvements were offset by investments in inventory needed to meet anticipated customer demand. Operating activities in the 2010 period also included a discretionary contribution of $1.6 million to the Company's pension plans.

Investing activities in the first quarter of 2010 primarily consisted of capital expenditures of $5.9 million compared to $9.6 million in the 2009 period. The Company expects capital spending in 2010 to be approximately $35.0 million.

Cash from financing activities in the first quarter of 2010 included a net decrease in borrowings of $0.8 million compared to an increase of $12.5 million in the comparable 2009 period. The cash generated from operations in the 2010 period was used for capital expenditures, dividends and debt reduction. In the 2009 period, net borrowings were used to finance working capital requirements, capital expenditures and dividends. Total cash used to pay dividends decreased in the first quarter of 2010 by $4.0 million from the comparable 2009 period to $4.4 million due to a decrease in the cash dividends per share from $.16 per share in 2009 to $.08 per share in 2010.

At March 31, 2010, the Company held $15.4 million in cash and cash equivalents, the majority of which are held outside of the U.S. In general, the repatriation of cash to the U.S. would have adverse tax consequences and the balances remain outside the U.S. to fund future international investments. The Company expects to repatriate a portion of current year foreign earnings to the U.S. in 2010.

The Company maintains borrowing facilities with banks to supplement internal cash generation. At March 31, 2010, $162.0 million was borrowed at an average interest rate of 1.19% under the Company's $400.0 million borrowing facility which matures in September, 2012. Also, at March 31, 2010, $32.1 million was borrowed at an average interest rate of 2.98% under the Company's $35.0 million borrowing facility which matures in July, 2012. Additionally, the Company had $1.0 million in borrowings under short-term bank credit lines at an interest rate of 2.23% at March 31, 2010. At March 31, 2010, the Company's total borrowings are comprised of approximately 46% fixed rate debt and approximately 54% variable rate debt.

Table of Contents

The interest payments on approximately 51% of the variable rate interest debt have been converted into payment of fixed interest plus the borrowing spread under the terms of the respective interest rate swap agreements.

Debt Covenants

Borrowing capacity is limited by various debt covenants in the Company's debt agreements. As of March 31, 2010 the most restrictive borrowing capacity covenant in any agreement requires the Company to maintain a maximum ratio of Consolidated Total Debt to Adjusted Earnings before interest expense, income taxes, and depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), as defined in the amended and restated revolving credit agreement, of not more than 3.75 times for the four fiscal quarters then ending. Following is a reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA, as defined, to the Company's net income (in millions):

	Four fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2010
Net income	$ 39.4
Add back:
Interest expense	21.8
Income taxes	0.7
Depreciation and amortization	51.1
Other adjustments	3.6
Adjusted EBITDA, as defined	$ 116.6
Consolidated Total Debt, as defined, as of March 31, 2010	$ 363.7
Ratio of Consolidated Total Debt to Adjusted EBITDA	3.12

Other adjustments primarily relate to the 2009 repurchase of certain of the Company's convertible notes. Consolidated Total Debt excludes the debt discount related to the convertible notes. The Company's financial covenants are measured as of the end of each fiscal quarter. At March 31, 2010, additional borrowings of $73.6 million would have been allowed under the covenants.

OTHER MATTERS

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant accounting policies are disclosed in Note 1 of the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. The most significant areas involving management judgments and estimates are described in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. There have been no material changes to such judgments and estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

EBITDA

EBITDA for the first quarter of 2010 were $32.0 million compared to $33.1 million in the first quarter of 2009. EBITDA is a measurement not in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The Company defines EBITDA as net income plus interest expense, income taxes and depreciation and amortization which the Company incurs in the normal course of business. The Company does not intend EBITDA to represent cash flows from operations as defined by GAAP, and the reader should not consider it as an alternative to net income, net cash provided by operating activities or any other items calculated in accordance with GAAP, or as an indicator of the Company's operating performance. The Company's definition of EBITDA may not be comparable with EBITDA as defined by other companies. Accordingly, the measurement has limitations depending on its use. The Company believes EBITDA is commonly used by financial analysts and others in the industries in which the Company operates and, thus, provides useful information to investors.

Following is a reconciliation of EBITDA to the Company's net income (in millions):

Forward-looking Statements

Certain of the statements in this quarterly report may contain certain forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation and Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are made based upon management's good faith expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effect upon the Company and can be identified by the use of words such as anticipated, believe, expect, plans, strategy, estimate, project, and other words of similar meaning in connection with a discussion of future operating or financial performance. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. The risks and uncertainties, which are described in our periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, include, among others, uncertainties arising from the behavior of financial markets; future financial performance of the industries or customers that we serve; changes in market demand for our products and services; integration of acquired businesses; changes in raw material prices and availability; our dependence upon revenues and earnings from a small number of significant customers; uninsured claims; and numerous other matters of global, regional or national scale, including those of a political, economic, business, competitive, regulatory and public health nature. The Company assumes no obligation to update our forward-looking statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There has been no significant change in the Company's exposure to market risk during the first three months of 2010. For discussion of the Company's exposure to market risk, refer to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Management, including the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon, and as of the date of, that evaluation, the President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures were effective, in all material respects, to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports the Company files and submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported as and when required and (ii) is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including our President and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting during the Company's first fiscal quarter of 2010 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
