Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On March 14, 2012, Apria Healthcare Group Inc. (the Company) announced the realignment of management responsibilities for its operating segments. In connection with these changes, Daniel E. Greenleaf was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Coram, Inc., the principal operating subsidiary for the Company's Home Infusion Therapy Segment. Mr. Greenleaf joined the Company as President of Coram, Inc., in 2008 and was promoted to Chief Operating Officer of the Company in 2010. In this promotion to Chief Executive Officer of Coram, Mr. Greenleaf will no longer serve as the Chief Operating Officer of the Company's Home Respiratory/Home Medical Equipment Segment.

Item 8.01. Other Events

On March 14, 2012, the Company also announced that Daniel J. Starck has been named Chief Executive Officer of Apria Healthcare, Inc., the principal operating subsidiary for the Company's Home Respiratory Therapy/Home Medical Equipment Segment, effective April 16, 2012. Norman C. Payson, M.D. will continue to serve as the Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, overseeing both operating segments.

Mr. Starck, age 45, joins Apria from CorVel Corporation, where he served as Chief Executive Officer since 2007 and as President and Chief Operating Officer since 2006. From 1992 to 2006, Mr. Starck held progressively more responsible operational positions with the Company and a predecessor company. From 2003 to 2006, Mr. Starck served the Company as Executive Vice President of Business Operations, with national responsibility for revenue management, logistics and other multi-site operational functions.

A copy of the press release announcing the management realignment and the appointment of Mr. Starck is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this current report.
