Note on Forward Looking Statements

This document contains forward looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward looking statements include statements about Jefferies and Leucadia's future and statements that are not historical facts. These forward looking statements are usually preceded by the words expect, intend, may, will, or similar expressions. All information and estimates relating to the merger of Leucadia and Jefferies and the combination of our businesses constitute forward looking statements. Forward looking statements may contain expectations regarding post-merger activities, financial strength, operations, synergies, and other results, and may include statements of future performance, plans, and objectives. Forward looking statements also include (i) statements pertaining to our strategies for the future development of our businesses, (ii) the spin-out of Leucadia's Crimson Wine Group, and (iii) Jefferies' intention to remain subject to the filing requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward looking statements represent only our belief regarding future events, many of which by their nature are inherently uncertain or subject to change. It is possible that the actual results may differ, possibly materially, from the anticipated results indicated in these forward-looking statements. Information regarding important factors that could cause actual results to differ, perhaps materially, from those in our forward looking statements is contained in reports we file and will file with the SEC. You should read and interpret any forward looking statement together with such reports.

Leucadia Jefferies

Leucadia Jefferies

Background

On November 12, 2012, Leucadia and Jefferies announced that the Board of Directors of each company had approved a definitive merger agreement under which Jefferies' shareholders (other than Leucadia) will receive 0.81 of a share of Leucadia common stock for each share of Jefferies common stock they hold

Transaction expected to close in Q1 2013

Leucadia is one of the world's leading long-term investors, having grown book value per share at a CAGR of 18.5% since 1979⁽¹⁾

Publicly Listed: LUK (NYSE)

Market Cap: $5.9 billion (01/04/13)

Member of S&P 500

Combined Balance Sheet Strength and Scale

Merger will enhance both Leucadia and Jefferies' liquidity, scale and overall financial strength

Combined balance sheet:

Total Assets: $42.1 billion ⁽⁴⁾

Total Shareholders' Equity: $9.2 billion ⁽⁴⁾

Jefferies will retain a credit rating that is separate from Leucadia's, and intends to remain an SEC reporting company, regularly filing annual (10-K), quarterly (10-Q) and periodic (8-K) public financial reports

Robust Balance Sheet and Liquidity

Leucadia has a highly liquid, equity- and cash-rich balance sheet, with a diverse portfolio of cash-flow positive assets with substantial enterprise value

Adjusted Cash & Public (2) Securities: $2.4 billion ⁽²⁾

Adjusted Book Value: $6.5 billion ⁽²⁾

Parent Company Debt / Adjusted Equity: 0.15x ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾

Adjusted Assets / Adjusted Equity: 1.4x ⁽²⁾

Expected Credit Ratings

Per press releases of November 12, 2012 from Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch, after the merger closes:

Standard & Poor's expects that the merger will enhance ratings at both Jefferies and Leucadia

Jefferies post-merger: BBB (stable)

Leucadia post-merger: BBB (stable)

Moody's expects that the merger will result in Jefferies being reaffirmed and Leucadia being upgraded two notches

Jefferies post-merger: Baa3 (stable)

Leucadia post-merger: Ba1 (stable)

Fitch expects that the merger will result in Jefferies' and Leucadia's ratings being equalized

Jefferies post-merger: BBB-

Leucadia post-merger: BBB-

(2) Adjusted for October 2012 redemption / sale of Fortescue note, Keen Energy and Pershing Square. See pages 26-28 for further detail.

(3) See page 29 for further detail of Parent Company Debt.

(4) Adjusted for spin-out of Crimson Wine Group (estimated $197 million reduction in book value) and October 2012 redemption / sale of Fortescue note, Keen Energy and Pershing Square. See pages 26 and 28 for further detail.

Leucadia Jefferies

Leucadia Jefferies merger creates a unique combination

Leucadia will be in the business of merchant investing and owning Jefferies, an investment banking firm

Jefferies will continue its over 50-year focus in the capital markets and maintain a highly liquid balance sheet

Future acquisitions and investments will leverage the knowledge base, opportunity flow and execution capabilities of Leucadia and Jefferies management team and businesses

Source: Jefferies as of 08/31/12 and Leucadia as of 09/30/12.

- (1) Adjusted for spin-out of Crimson Wine Group (estimated $197 million reduction in book value) and October 2012 redemption / sale of Fortescue note, Keen Energy and Pershing Square. See pages 26 - 28 for further detail.
- (2) Reflects Jefferies common shareholders equity adjusted to fair value per announced exchange ratio, plus Leucadia interest in Jefferies High Yield Holdings. See page 26 for further detail.
- (3) See page 29 for reconciliation.
- (4) Assumes exchange of Jefferies Mandatorily Redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock into comparable Leucadia Redeemable Preferred Stock.

Jefferies Leucadia

Post-merger, Jefferies will be in a position to more rapidly build its equity capital base through retention of a greater proportion of earnings, and will enjoy potential access to additional capital from the Leucadia holding company, ensuring greater balance sheet flexibility and resilience

No required Jefferies High Yield Holdings (JHYH) mandatorily redeemable preferred interest and non-controlling interest distributions

Jefferies expensed $84 MM of distributions relating to JHYH in FY 2012 ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾

No required public company stock dividends

Jefferies paid out $62 MM in common stock dividends in FY 2012 ⁽¹⁾

Jefferies would have the ability to defer Federal income tax payments to Leucadia, if needed, at management's discretion (Leucadia has an adjusted deferred tax asset of $1.4 billion ⁽³⁾)

Jefferies expensed Federal income taxes of $142 MM in FY 2012 ⁽¹⁾

Assuming the merger occurred on January 1, 2012, the net effect would be an incremental $124 MM in cash ⁽⁴⁾, as well as potential Federal income tax savings of $142 MM ⁽⁵⁾, in aggregate representing 2.2x Jefferies' FY 2012 net income, less common stock dividends

Jefferies Overview

Core Operating Principles

Jefferies is focused on the following core principles to manage risk and deliver across-the-cycle revenue and earnings growth:

Strong Liquidity

Jefferies maintains a very liquid, financeable and low-risk balance sheet

Limited Leverage

Jefferies maintains a consistent, carefully managed leverage ratio, and has demonstrated the operational and financial flexibility to reduce leverage in times of stress

Consistent Profitability

Jefferies has remained solidly profitable despite the volatile trading environment in global markets since 2009

Driving Productivity

Following two years of significant investment, Jefferies continues to rapidly increase investment banker productivity

Recent hires have begun reaching targeted productivity levels

Aside from recent hires, investment banker productivity continues to substantially improve due to Jefferies' increasingly prominent market presence

Taking Market Share

Since 2008, Jefferies has substantially grown market share by:

Taking advantage of market dislocation and our competitors' ongoing struggles to enter new business and regions and expand existing capabilities

Delivering broader and better capabilities to our clients

Culture

Jefferies is transparent, not arrogant, client focused and creditor friendly

Jefferies Revenues & Net Income Since 1990

($ Millions)

With the exception of our results during the global financial crisis in 2007-2008, Jefferies has not had a single loss quarter dating back to 1990

Jefferies raised $433 million of equity from Leucadia in 2008, more than mitigating the impact of our operating loss

- (1) Adjusted to exclude debt extinguishment gains, amortization of debt discounts, donations to Hurricane Sandy relief, transaction costs associated with the announced merger with Leucadia National Corporation and certain historical acquisition items.
- (2) Includes post-tax losses of $427 million related to the modification of the terms of our employee stock awards in Q4 2008, such that previously granted awards were written off and current year employee stock compensation awards were expensed in the year in which service was provided.

Consistent Profitability Across the Cycle

($Millions)

Jefferies has generated pre-tax earnings of $1.85 billion since 2009

Average pre-tax margin of 18.0%

- (1) Adjusted to exclude debt extinguishment gains, amortization of debt discounts, donations to Hurricane Sandy relief, transaction costs associated with the announced merger with Leucadia National Corporation and certain historical acquisition items.

Substantial Investment in Human Capital, Including Infrastructure Support

Jefferies headcount has grown 275% since 2000

Jefferies Corporate headcount is up 53% since 2009 vs. 41% for the front office, enhancing support and controls

Liquidity and Funding Principles

Jefferies long-standing liquidity and funding principles have maintained the strength and soundness of our platform across market cycles:

Owning inventory that is composed of liquid assets that turn over regularly, with a minimal amount of Level 3 Assets

Maintaining a sound, long-term capital base and reasonable leverage relative to our business activity

No reliance on unsecured funding or customer balances

Short term secured funding that is readily and consistently available through clearing houses, or fixed for periods of time that exceed the expected tenure of the inventory they are funding

Assessing capital reserves and maintaining liquidity (including intraday liquidity) to withstand adverse changes in the trading or financing markets

Where appropriate, entering into partnerships and joint ventures with complementary long-term partners to pursue business opportunities that otherwise will exceed our capital capacity or risk tolerance

Balance Sheet

Strong Capital Structure and Ample Liquidity

Jefferies maintains a highly liquid balance sheet, with low gross leverage and exposure to illiquid assets, and significant structural liquidity

Jefferies continues to manage the size of its balance sheet in response to market conditions and volatility

Total assets at 11/30/12: $36.3 billion

Reduced by ~20% since peak in Q3 2011

Gross leverage at 11/30/12: 9.6x

Reduced by ~25% since Q3 2011

Long-term capital of $8.6 billion as of 08/31/12, including $4.5 billion of long-term debt with a weighted average maturity of 8.3 years

($ Millions)	As of Aug. 31, 2012
Long Term Debt (excluding current portion)	$ 4,451
Mandatorily Redeemable Preferred Interest ⁽¹⁾	340
Series A Convertible Preferred ⁽²⁾	125
Total Stockholders' Equity	3,707
Total Capitalization	$ 8,622

- (1) Prior to the effective time of the second merger, Jefferies and Leucadia will take actions necessary to amend the limited liability company agreement of Jefferies High Yield Holdings, LLC with respect to Leucadia's equity interest in Jefferies High Yield Holdings, LLC so that (i) the maturity date of Leucadia's interest is extended to at least three years and (ii) Leucadia's interest qualifies as Jefferies equity for generally accepted accounting principles purposes.
- (2) On November 9, 2012, Jefferies received confirmation from Mass Mutual that it would agree either to accept Leucadia mirror preferred stock, on terms to be determined, instead of its Jefferies preferred stock, or to redeem its Jefferies preferred stock.

Consistent Common Equity Growth

Jefferies has grown common equity by $1.7 billion, or 99%, since the financial crisis began in Q1 2008

Jefferies' proactive equity capital raises have helped the firm navigate the global financial crisis and capitalize on growth opportunities

Limited Leverage

($Millions)

Jefferies has a long-standing policy of carefully managing balance sheet leverage

In periods of stress, Jefferies has demonstrated the ability to rapidly reduce leverage without unduly impacting our business

Strong Liquidity

Jefferies' trading inventory is liquid and low-risk, rapidly turning in order to serve client flow

Very liquid inventory

77% of financial instruments owned are readily and consistently financeable at haircuts of 10% or less

Level 3 assets represent only 3% of long inventory – consistent over past 11 quarters

Reliable secured funding

90% of Jefferies' assets financed through repos are eligible for central clearing

No reliance on short-term unsecured funding

Client-focused

Fee and flow based businesses represent preponderance of net revenues

Level 3 Trading Assets Overview

97% of inventory is Levels 1 and 2, with a minimal amount of Level 3 trading assets

Level 3 Trading Assets ⁽¹⁾ represent only 13% of common equity

Liquidity Pool

($Millions)

Jefferies maintains significant excess liquidity on hand

Liquidity Pool has increased 23% since 11/30/11

Long-Term Debt Profile

As of 08/31/12, our $4.5 billion of long-term debt has a weighted average maturity of 8 years

No scheduled debt maturities until 2014

No maturity of long-term debt in a single year is greater than 20% of outstanding long-term debt
