Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Representatives of ADC Telecommunications, Inc. ("ADC" or the "Company") met with investors at a conference sponsored by Lehman Brothers on Thursday, May 31, 2007, to discuss the Company's business and strategy.

The Company did not comment with any specificity on expected financial results for the second fiscal quarter or its financial outlook for fiscal 2007. In response to a question regarding business seasonality, the Company did state that, as in fiscal 2006, results for its second quarter in fiscal 2007 are likely to represent its peak quarter for the year. The Company currently expects the results in the second half of fiscal 2007 to be relatively flat to down modestly from its fiscal 2007 first half, but does not expect the quarterly pattern of results in fiscal 2007 to fluctuate as sharply as in fiscal 2006. In addition, the Company believes that if current timing uncertainties for customer spending associated with merger integration activities are resolved favorably, then the Company would see a positive impact on its business in the second half of fiscal 2007.

As previously announced, ADC plans to release its second quarter results on June 6, 2007 at approximately 4:00 PM Eastern/3:00 PM Central Time. The Company also plans to discuss its second quarter 2007 actual results and current year outlook on a conference call scheduled for June 6, at 5:00 PM Eastern/4:00 PM Central Time. The conference call can be accessed by domestic callers at (800) 399-7506 and by international callers at (706) 634-2489 or on the Internet at www.adc.com/investor, by clicking on Webcasts.
