On October 15, 2007, World Energy Solutions, Inc. (the Company) reached an amicable resolution with a small group of dissident shareholders consisting of Messrs. Mike Prentice, Robert Depalo, Philip G. Flood and Dr. Robert C. Kratz (the Group). The Group filed a Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 9, 2007 seeking to take corporate action by written consent. As a result of the amicable resolution reached with the Company, the Group has agreed to terminate its effort to solicit consents from the Company's shareholders. Additionally, the Group has revoked any consents previously submitted to the Company by Mr. Philip G. Flood and other members of the Group. The Group and the Company's management look forward to working together toward World Energy Solutions' future success.
