Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 13, 2010, Comtech Telecommunications Corp (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing that it received a $226.7 million contract ceiling increase and contract modification to its Movement Tracking System (“MTS”) program contract with the U.S. Army. The total MTS contract ceiling is now $899.1 million.

The contract modification authorizes two (2) six-month performance period extension options. The first six-month performance period option was exercised immediately, extending the ordering period out through January 13, 2011, with deliveries and performance now authorized to continue into January 2012.

The foregoing description of the press release is qualified in its entirety to the press release, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
