Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On April 9, 2014, the Company's Board of Directors amended and restated the Company's Bylaws. The amendments include the following primary substantive changes:

- stockholder meetings may take place by means of remote communication;
- proposals of business and nominations of directors by stockholders and adjournments of stockholder meetings are subject to certain procedural requirements;
- stockholders must request the Company to set a record date prior to any stockholder action by written consent;
 - treatment of abstentions and broker non-votes is clarified;
- nominees for director must disclose third-party compensation arrangements;
 - nominees for director and stockholders proposing business or nominees must disclose derivative holdings;
 - attendance at a meeting of the Board of Directors constitutes a waiver of any lack of notice;
- committees of the Board of Directors may fill vacancies on such committee and certain procedural and conduct provisions apply to such committees;
 - descriptions of officers of the Company are clarified;
- officers of the Company are permitted to vote the shares of stock or other securities that the Company holds in another entity;
 - advance payment of expenses for officers and directors involved in litigation is permitted; and
 - Delaware is the exclusive forum for certain stockholder actions.

The Company's Bylaws, as amended, are attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and the foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Company's Bylaws, as amended and restated.
