Autodesk employees,

Last week we began mailing materials for the upcoming Autodesk annual stockholder meeting to be held on Tuesday, June 12, 2018. If you owned Autodesk shares (not options or unvested restricted stock units) on April 16, 2018, you should receive materials as part of the mailing. Please note that you likely have received or will receive this information via email rather than regular mail. The delivery method depends on how you previously elected to receive stockholder materials from Autodesk.

If you hold your shares in an E*TRADE account, you should have received an email from them on Friday with a link to the materials. Those materials instruct you on how to submit your vote.

Additionally, a copy of the stockholder materials can be viewed here: Autodesk Definitive Proxy Statement

We encourage you to review this material and cast your vote to approve the proposals. Regardless of whether you own shares or not, you may review Autodesk's 2018 Annual Report here: Autodesk Annual Report

If you have any questions, please call Autodesk Investor Relations at 415-507-6373.
