Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT) [NYSE: TEL; PSE: PHI] has began implementing a new Manpower Reduction Program (MRP) in its continuing effort to meet the challenges of the fixed line business.

An enhanced separation package for affected employees has been approved and incorporated in the MRP that is significantly more substantial than what the law provides. The MRP is being implemented under the New Labor Code and all other relevant labor laws and regulations.

PLDT regrets having to make this very difficult decision but must do so due to the overall decline of the fixed line business brought about by significant changes in technology, increasing competition, and shifting market preferences, not only in the country but worldwide that have reshaped the future of our fixed line business, explained Victorico Vargas, Senior Vice President for Human Resources of PLDT.

PLDT assures its subscribers and the general public that it shall maintain efficient operations, and continue to provide the best possible telecommunications service.
