NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some information in this report may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current beliefs, expectations and intentions as to facts, actions and events that will or may occur in the future. Such statements generally are identified by forward-looking words such as believe, plan, anticipate, continue, estimate, expect, may, will or other similar words.

A forward-looking statement may include a statement of the assumptions or bases underlying the forward-looking statement. We have chosen these assumptions or bases in good faith. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, some of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are not a guarantee of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from information contained in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including, without limitation, the risk factors set forth in Item 3. Key Information Risk Factors in our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. You should also keep in mind that any forward-looking statement made by us in this report or elsewhere speaks only as at the date on which we made it. New risks and uncertainties come up from time to time, and it is impossible for us to predict these events or how they may affect us. We have no duty to, and do not intend to, update or revise the statements in this report after the date hereof. In light of these risks and uncertainties, you should keep in mind that actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statement made in this report or elsewhere.

MUMBAI (Standard & Poor's) April 1, 2011 -- Standard & Poor's Ratings Services said today that its long-term corporate credit rating on Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT: foreign currency BB+/Stable/--; ASEAN scale axBBB+/-) remain unaffected by the company's acquisition of Digital Telecommunications Philippines Inc. (Digitel: not rated).

We expect the acquisition to further strengthen PLDT's competitive position in the Philippine telecom market, and increase its spectrum and broadband growth opportunities. We also believe that the acquisition could improve the company's operating and capital expenditure efficiency. Nevertheless, we expect the benefit to be limited considering that Digitel is significantly smaller than PLDT and has lower operating margins. The acquisition would also have some negative impact on PLDT's financial ratios. However, we do not expect the impact to be significant because the acquisition is largely equity funded.

PLDT acquired Digitel at an estimated US$2.3 billion in enterprise value. The payment includes about US$1.6 billion in equity to Digitel's majority owner JG Summit Holdings Inc. and an estimated US$600 million in debt from Digitel. The acquisition is subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals. PLDT expects the acquisition to be completed by June 2011.
