months ended April 30, 2002 totaled 50 cents per share. Based on the share price of $4.45 on April 30, 2002, the cash distribution rate over the 12 months then ended was 11.2%. Since all distributions are paid after deducting applicable withholding taxes, the effective distribution rate may be higher for those US investors who are able to claim a tax credit. On June 19, 2002, the Board of Directors declared a monthly distribution of 3.5 cents per share payable on July 12, 2002 to all shareholders of record as of June 28, 2002.

The Board's policy is to provide investors with a stable monthly distribution out of current income, supplemented by realized capital gains and, to the extent necessary, paid-in capital. It is the Board's intention that the monthly distribution of 3.5 cents per share be maintained for 12 months, having begun with the February 2002 distribution payment. This policy is subject to regular review at the Board's quarterly meetings, unless market conditions require an earlier evaluation. The next review is scheduled to take place in September 2002.

assets in investments suggested by its name. In order to comply with this rule, the Directors of the Fund adopted the following investment policy, at the June 19, 2002 meeting:

For as long as the name of the Fund remains Aberdeen Asia-Pacific Income Fund, Inc., it shall be the policy of the Fund normally to invest at least 80% of its net assets plus the amount of any borrowings for investment purposes, in Asian debt securities, Australian debt securities and New Zealand debt securities. This 80% investment policy is a non-fundamental policy of the Fund and may be changed by the Board of Directors upon 60 days prior written notice to shareholders.

This policy is consistent with the investment policies of the Fund set forth in the Fund's prospectus, as further amended by shareholders at the Annual Meetings of Shareholders in 1998 and 2001.

4 Aberdeen Asia-Pacific Income Fund, Inc.

Your Board's policy is to provide investors with a stable monthly distribution out of current income, supplemented by realized capital gains and, to the extent necessary, paid-in capital.

The Fund is subject to U.S. corporate, tax and securities laws. Under U.S. tax accounting rules, the amount of distributable income for each fiscal period depends on the actual exchange rates during the entire year between the U.S. dollar and the currencies in which Fund assets are denominated and on the aggregate gains and losses realized by the Fund during the entire year.

Therefore the exact amount of distributable income for each fiscal year can only be determined as of the end of the Fund's fiscal year, October 31. However, under the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, the Fund is required to indicate the source of each distribution to shareholders.

The Fund estimates that distributions for the fiscal year commencing November 1, 2001, including the distribution paid on June 7, 2002 are comprised of 21% net investment income and 79% return of paid-in capital.

This estimated distribution composition may vary from month to month because it may be materially impacted by future realized gains and losses on securities and on fluctuations in the value of the currencies in which Fund assets are denominated.

In January 2003, a Form 1099 DIV will be sent to shareholders, which will state the amount and composition of distributions and provide information with respect to their appropriate tax treatment.

Under this arrangement, the Plan Agent will purchase shares for you on the stock exchange or otherwise on the open market on or about the 15th of each month, unless shares of the Fund are trading at a premium, in which case, the Fund will issue additional shares.

As a Participant in the Plan, you will have the convenience of:

Automatic reinvestment - the Plan Agent will automatically reinvest your distributions, allowing you to gradually grow your holdings in the Fund;

Report of the Investment Manager

Share Price Performance

On April 30, 2002, the Fund's share price was $4.45, which represented a discount of 6.7% to the NAV of $4.77. At the date of this report, the share price was $4.84 representing a discount of 5.8% to the NAV of $5.14.

Distributions

The Board reduced the Fund's monthly distribution from 4.5 cents per share to 3.5 cents per share beginning with the distribution payable on February 8, 2002. The Investment Manager continues its efforts to reallocate the portfolio toward higher yielding Asian fixed income securities. Further, with the expectation of an improving global economy in mid to late 2002, the Investment Manager anticipates improvement in the value of non-U.S. dollar currencies. Together, these factors may enhance the Fund's net investment income and ability to realize capital gains. However, there can be no assurance that the Investment Manager's expectations will be met.

Auction Market Preferred Stock (AMPS)

The Fund's $600 million of AMPS continued to be well bid at the weekly auctions. The average dividend rate paid was 2.09% over the six months ended April 30, 2002, compared with an interest rate of 1.83% for 30-day US commercial paper over the same period. These rates have decreased over the period, due to the lowering of interest rates by the U.S. Federal Reserve in the fourth quarter of 2001. The rates paid to preferred shareholders have decreased further since April 30, 2002 to a level of 2.05% as of the date of this report.

Overall, the Fund's shareholders have enjoyed long-term benefits from leverage to date in the form of an enhanced total return. In the past six months, the impact of AMPS has been positive, largely as a result of the recovery in the Australian dollar and an end to the unilateral strength of the U.S. dollar. In addition, U.S. interest rates and short term rates have remained at historically low levels during the period, opening up a positive yield differential between AMPS funding rates and investment yields. Offsetting these impacts to some extent have been capital losses as bond yields have risen in line with signs of global recovery. Overall, the outlook over the medium-term for investment markets and the portfolio in respect of these factors is
