COMMAND SECURITY INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE
RESPONSE TO 13D FILING

Lagrangeville, New York ***April 15, 2004 *** Command Security Corporation (OTCBB:CMMD) announced today that its Disclosure Committee recommended to the Company's Independent Committee of the Board of Directors that a statement be issued following the filing on April 12 of a Schedule 13D.

The Chairman of the Independent Committee, Gregory J. Miller, reaffirmed the Committee's commitment to serve the Company as a whole and to address the best interests of all shareholders. Accordingly, he reported that as authorized by the Board of Directors, the Company has engaged in discussions with the 13D reporting person, as well as others, concerning any involvement by the Company in the buy-out of the interests of Reliance Security Group Plc in the Company. As reported in the 13D and earlier Company filings, Reliance owns a large number of shares of common and preferred stock, as well as warrants.

Mr. Miller reported that the Committee's discussions with the 13D reporting person have not yet progressed beyond preliminary discussions, and that the Committee will not be able to begin the formal review process until responses to specific questions have been received. Accordingly, the Committee has no position on the transaction at this time. To the extent that the 13D might be read to imply that the Committee currently supports any specific transaction at this time, there is no basis in fact.

The Independent Committee stated that it plans to remain open to communications with the reporting person and others who seek information or input from the Company with respect to the proposed transaction with Reliance. Once the Committee has adequate responses and information, it will present its recommendations to the Company's full Board of Directors for appropriate action at that level.

Mr. Miller concluded by stating that the members of the Independent Committee, in their capacity as such, and in their capacity as Directors of the Company's Board of Directors, intend to protect the shareholders' interests and to respond to all good faith inquiries and requests.

The Independent Committee consists of Gregory J. Miller, Esq., Peter Nekos, CPA and Carl Painter, MBA. All members concur in this release.
