FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WESTERN INTERNATIONAL SYNDICATION FILES THIRD PARTY COMPLAINT

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Vancouver, B.C. Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX: "PAE"; TSE: "PAE.A", "PAE.B"), a leading independent television production company in Canada, today announced that it has learned of an action being commenced naming, among numerous other parties, Peace Arch as a third party defendant. The lawsuit is between Plaintiff, Rena Mero and Defendant, Western International Syndication. In the main action, Mero has claimed damages for, inter alia, use of another's name and likeness, unfair competition and commercial misappropriation. The Company has not, at this time, accepted service of such suit, which was commenced in California.

The suit arose from Western International Syndication's involvement in a television series (The Immortal) produced by a subsidiary of the Company. Western Syndication syndicated the initial 22 episodes of the television series.

"The third party action fails to set out the specific allegations of fact or the legal basis upon which Western International Syndication is making its claim, nor does it specify the amount of the claim against Peace Arch," stated John Nicolls, Director of Business Affairs for Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. "Given the fact that Peace Arch is named as a third party defendant among ten other companies," he added, "it is evident that Western Syndication is using the 'shotgun' approach to litigation."

Juliet Jones, President and Chief Executive Officer of Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. commented, "Upon a preliminary review, we strongly believe that the claim against Peace Arch is without merit. This action follows another suit filed by Forgotten Kingdom Productions Inc., Danny Virtue and Lloyd Simandl, also involving Rena Mero, which also appears to be without merit. Peace Arch intends to vigorously defend these claims. These law suits are disappointing, but should not distract the Company from its business."

Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. creates, develops, finances, produces and distributes proprietary television programming for worldwide markets and is headquartered in Vancouver, British Columbia. Additional information on its award-winning television series, feature films and documentaries can be found on the Company's website at www.peacearch.com.

This press release includes statements that may constitute forward-looking statements, usually containing the words "believe", "estimate", "project", "expect", or similar expressions. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Factors that would cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, continued acceptance of the Company's products and services in the marketplace, competitive factors, dependence upon third-party vendors, and other risks detailed in the Company's periodic report filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. By making these forward-looking statements, the Company undertakes no obligation to update these statements for revisions or changes after the date of this release.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A.

Rule as to Use of Form 6-K,

This form shall be used by foreign private issuers which are required to furnish reports pursuant to Rule 13a-16 or 15d-16 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

B.

Information and Document required to be Furnished,

Subject to General Instruction D herein, an issuer furnishing a report on this form shall furnish whatever information, not required to be furnished on Form 40-F or previously furnished, such issuer (I) makes or is required to make public pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction of its domicile or in which it is incorporated or organized, or (ii) files or is required to file with a stock exchange on which its securities are traded and which was made public by that exchange, or (iii) distributes or is required to distribute to its security holders.

The information required to be furnished pursuant to (I), (ii) or (iii) above is that which is material with respect to the issuer and its subsidiaries concerning: changes in business; changes in management or control; acquisitions or dispositions of assets; bankruptcy or receivership; changes in registrant's certifying accountants; the financial condition and results of operations; material legal proceedings; changes in securities or in the security for registered securities; defaults upon senior securities; material increases or decreases in the amount outstanding of securities or indebtedness; the results of the submission of matters to a vote of security holders; transactions with directors, officers or principal security holders; the granting of options or payment of other compensation to directors or officers; and any other information which the registrant deems of material importance to security holders.

This report is required to be furnished promptly after the material contained in the report is made public as described above. The information and documents furnished in this report shall not be deemed to be "filed" for the purpose of Section 18 of the Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.

If a report furnished on this form incorporates by reference any information not previously filed with the Commission, such information must be attached as an exhibit and furnished with the form.

C.

Preparation and Filing of Report

This report shall consist of a cover page, the document or report furnished by the issuer, and a signature page. Eight complete copies of each report on this form shall be deposited with the Commission. At least one complete copy shall be filed with each United States stock exchange on which any security of the registrant is listed and registered under Section 12(b) of the Act. At least one of the copies deposited with the Commission and one filed with each such exchange shall be manually signed. Unsigned copies shall be conformed.

D.

Translations of Papers and Documents into English

Reference is made to Rule 12b-12(d) [17 CFR 240.12b-12(d)]. Information required to be furnished pursuant to General Instruction B in the form of press releases and all communications or materials distributed directly to security holders of each class of securities to which any reporting obligation under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Act relates shall be in the English language. English versions or adequate summaries in the English language of such materials may be furnished in lieu of original English translations.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Notwithstanding General Instruction B, no other documents or reports, including prospectuses or offering circulars relating to entirely foreign offerings, need be furnished unless the issuer otherwise has prepared or caused to be prepared English translations, English versions or summaries in English thereof. If no such English translations, versions or summary have been prepared, it will be sufficient to provide a brief description in English of any such documents or reports. In no event are copies of original language documents or reports required to be furnished.
