by leveraging its synergies of the direct business model with the dealer driven business of Bureau of Hire Purchase and Credits (BHPC), a division of the Company. This merger will also allow the TFL shareholders to participate in the growth of the Company, a leading automobile company in the country and thereby significantly gain with an upside of dividend and shareholder value creation.

The proposed merger will enable the Company to grow its auto financing business and offer complete solutions in line with the global best practices in the auto industry. This will also enable the Company to provide a hedge against the cyclicity of the automotive business and a significant value creation for its shareholders.

Currently, Tata Finance and BHPC finance around 17-18% of the Company's vehicle sales while the global benchmark for captive finance units is to finance 35-40% of the parent Company's vehicle sales. This merger is expected to create a platform that will enable the Company to accelerate its move towards the global benchmark.
