Mariner Energy Q&As as of September 1, 2010

Employment:

Q: If Apache offers an employment opportunity to me, how will I receive it?

A: The offer will be delivered by the hiring manager whenever possible. For field personnel, Apache will send the offer via overnight mail to your home address with a return envelope. The offer will contain two copies of the offer letter (one for you to sign and return to Apache, the other for your personal records), an acceptance of the Apache Retention Agreement, a waiver of the Mariner severance agreement, and a summary of the acquisition payments from close through December 2012.

Q: Why does the offer packet not include detailed information regarding the closing bonus and the February 2011 bonus?

A: Those two retention payments are outlined in the Summary of Employee Retention/Severance Arrangements distributed to Mariner employees on April 29, 2010, and filed with the SEC on April 30, 2010, and are therefore public documents. Because these payments were negotiated with the terms of the transaction, details of these payments are not included in the offer packet. We recommend employees read the wording from those documents if more information about these payments is necessary.

Q: Will the closing bonus and the Apache Retention bonus be paid in cash or shares of stock?

A: The closing bonus will be paid in cash. While Apache has the option to pay the Retention Bonus in cash or shares of Apache common stock, the payment to be made for 2010 will be in cash.

Q: What happens if the transaction does not close by October 1, 2010?

A: As set forth in the Summary of Employee Retention/Severance Arrangements referred to above, in the event the Closing Date has not occurred prior to October 1, all references to December 1 related to severance will become 60 days after the close and all references to December 31 related to severance, will become 90 days after the Closing Date.

Benefits:

Q. The Apache 401(k) Savings Plan has a five year vesting schedule. Will my years of service with Mariner apply to the Apache vesting schedule?

A. Yes. Your Mariner Employer Matching deferrals will be transferred to the Apache Plan and remain subject to the three year vesting schedule. Your Mariner vesting service credit will also be applied to the Apache five year vesting schedule and you will continue to accrue service credit toward any non-vested employer matching deferrals whether in the former Mariner Plan or the Apache Plan.

Q. Should the proposed merger between Mariner and Apache be completed, what are my options concerning my 401(k) balance with Mariner?

A. As soon as administratively possible following the closing date, the Mariner Energy Capital Accumulation Plan will be merged into the Apache Corporation 401(k) Savings Plan. Your 401(k) balance including any outstanding loans will be merged into the Apache Plan. Approximately 30 days prior to the closing date, a transition guide will be mailed to your home address that explains the merger process, important dates and the fund mapping of your current investments to like investments in the Apache Plan. Following the transfer of your account balance, you may process a fund exchange to reallocate any portion of your account to other investments offered in the Apache Plan.

Q. How will the conversion from a bi-weekly payroll cycle to a semi-monthly cycle affect my 401(k) Plan Loan?

A. If your regular payroll cycle is being converted from bi-weekly to semi-monthly, your outstanding loan balance will be re-amortized as soon as administratively possible following the closing date and the new loan repayment amount will be implemented on your next regular payroll cycle. You may request a copy of the new loan amortization schedule by contacting Fidelity Investments at 1-800-835-5098. The new amortization schedule will not automatically be sent to you after the loan has been converted to a semi-monthly payment cycle.

Q. Will there be a Black Out period during the Mariner Plan merger to the Apache Plan?

A. Yes. On the designated date of the Mariner Plan merger, your account will not be accessible to you beginning at 4:00 p.m. EST so that Fidelity can reconcile the assets of the Mariner Plan and transfer the participant balances and loans to the Apache Plan. This period will only last until the beginning of the next business day.

Q: If a Mariner employee elects the Apache Retiree Medical Plan, is the coverage continuous under the plan until age 65?

A: Yes. A Mariner employee who is age 55 and has five years of service satisfies the eligibility for the one-time election for coverage until their 65th birthday regardless of future eligibility for other medical coverage.

Q: If an employee chooses to retire and then goes to work again either contract or for another employer, can they still keep the Apache Retiree Medical Plan?

A. Once the employee elects coverage under the Retiree Medical Plan, the coverage can be continued for as long as the monthly premium is paid. However, if there is another group plan available; the former Mariner Energy employee should cancel coverage with Apache.

Q: If a retired employee becomes eligible for another group plan and drops coverage under the Apache Retiree Medical Plan, can they re-enroll again before reaching age if they lose coverage?

A. No. If the retiree elects other medical coverage after electing Apache's Retiree Medical coverage, the coverage is terminated with no further eligibility.

Q. Is a Mariner employee who elects the Retiree Medical Plan coverage eligible to cover dependents?

A. Yes. The Mariner employee is eligible to cover any dependent covered under Mariner Energy's group medical plan at the time of the employee's one-time election. If the spouse and/or child are covered under other insurance and subsequently lose coverage, the employee is eligible to add those dependents to the retiree medical coverage and can also add a child that becomes eligible through a court order. You cannot re-instate coverage for a spouse or child once you drop it.

Q: How will Apache handle the health care reform legislation regarding coverage for children up to Age 26?

A. Apache will implement the change in coverage for children up to age 26 effective January 1, 2011 to comply with the federal healthcare reform legislation. The definition of an eligible child in the Medical Plan will not change. Only the age and status limits will be changed to allow coverage under the Apache Medical Plan to age 26.

Q: Does Apache pay for things such as parking and health club dues?

A: Parking is provided by Apache in the Houston parking garage and in the parking lot in Lafayette. Apache also has discounts with over 30 various organizations such as Sam's Club, Sea World, Office Max, General Motors, Toyota and Bally's. The enrollment fees are waived by Bally's as part of a discount to Apache employees. Apache also has a very broad wellness program which includes annual health screening, wellness consulting and fitness programs at no cost to employees.
