PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

BearingPoint, Inc. (the "Company") will be unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007 by May 10, 2007. As previously disclosed, the Company experienced significant delays in completing its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005, and, in turn, has experienced significant delays in completing its consolidated condensed financial statements for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 and its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company filed its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 (the "2005 Form 10-K") on November 22, 2006. In order to complete its 2006 financial statements, the Company is performing significant substantive procedures to compensate for the material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting. For information about the Company's material weaknesses, see Item 9A in the 2005 Form 10-K. Until the 2006 financial statements are completed, the Company will not be able to complete its consolidated condensed financial statements for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007 by May 10, 2007.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

☐ No ☒ Yes

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

It is not possible to state, at this time, whether there will be a significant change in the results of operations of the Company for the three months ended March 31, 2007 as compared to the three months ended March 31, 2006. As discussed in Part III above, a significant amount of work must be completed before the Company will be able to reasonably estimate and finalize its financial results for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006, the year ended December 31, 2006, and the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007.
