PROSPECTUS (Subject to Completion)

Dated March 26, 2008

477,319 Common Shares

The court-appointed Liquidator of the Estate of Tel-Art Inc., the selling shareholder, may offer and sell up to 477,319 common shares of Nam Tai Electronics, Inc., which are assets of the Estate of Tele-Art obtained by the Liquidator in the course of liquidating Tele-Art, a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands. These shares were originally issued by us in 1993 to Tele-Art upon exercise by Tele-Art of an option we issued to Tele-Art in 1988. In accordance with the laws of the British Virgin Islands, the Liquidator was appointed by the British Virgin Islands court to liquidate Tele-Art and the Liquidator is selling our shares in the course of those liquidation proceedings in order to pay or to provide for the payment of Tele-Art's creditors.

The selling shareholder may sell the shares through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholder, the purchasers of the shares, or both. See "Plan of Distribution" for a more complete description of the ways in which the shares may be sold.

The net proceeds of any sales of the shares will be applied by the Liquidator towards the satisfaction of his fees and expenses and thereafter toward the claims of creditors of Tele-Art. We are an unsecured creditor of Tele-Art and hold claims, including accrued interest and recoverable expenses through December 31, 2007, of approximately $45.7 million. As such, we expect the Liquidator to apply proceeds from the sale of shares, net of the Liquidator's outstanding fees and expenses, to reimburse us for amounts we have advanced in payment and satisfaction of the claims of Tele-Art's other creditors and on account of our claims against Tele-Art.

Our common shares are listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "NTE". On March 25, 2008, the closing price of our shares on the NYSE was $10.46 per share.

Your purchase of the shares offered by this prospectus involves a high degree of risk. See "Risk Factors" on page 5.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The selling shareholder, as the Official Liquidator of Tele-Art is entitled to, and will receive the net proceeds from sales of shares sold pursuant to this prospectus. Such proceeds, after payment of outstanding obligations for fees and expenses in connection with the Tele-Art liquidation proceedings, including those owing to Mr. Harrigan in his role as Tele-Art's Liquidator, will then be added to dividends accruing on the shares to be sold through the date of sale, if any, and applied by the Liquidator toward the claims of creditors of Tele-Art.

We are an unsecured creditor of Tele-Art and hold claims against Tele-Art's liquidation estate, including accrued interest and recoverable expenses through December 31, 2007, of approximately $45.7 million. As such, we expect the Liquidator to apply the net proceeds from the sale of shares and dividends accruing on the shares to be sold through the date of sale, if any, net of the Liquidator's outstanding fees and expenses, to reimburse us for amounts we have advanced in payment and satisfaction of the claims of Tele-Art's other creditors in the amount of approximately $2.7 million through December 31, 2007, the fees and expense of this offering (other than underwriting discounts or commissions, if any, or broker's commissions) which will be deducted from the proceeds of sale) and on account of our claims against Tele-Art.

Circumstances behind the acquisition of our shares by Tele-Art and its Liquidator

The shares being offered by the selling shareholder in this prospectus were originally issued by us in 1993 to Tele-Art in a private placement upon exercise by Tele-Art of an option we issued to Tele-Art in 1988.

In June 1997, we filed a petition in the British Virgin Islands for the winding up of Tele-Art Inc. Inc. on account of an unpaid judgment debt owed to us by Tele-Art Inc. The High Court of Justice of the British Virgin Islands, in accordance with British Virgin Islands law, granted our application for an order to wind up Tele-Art Inc. in July 1998. Tele-Art appealed to the Court of Appeal of the British Virgin Islands against the winding up order. That appeal was heard on January 1999, which dismissed the appeal.

Later in January 1999, following the dismissal of Tele-Art's appeal and pursuant to provisions of our Articles of Association, we redeemed and cancelled 457,297 of our shares (giving effect to our three-for-one stock split and one-for-ten stock dividend that we made in 2003) beneficially owned by Tele-Art, offsetting substantially all of the amounts owing to us on a judgment we had obtained against Tele-Art in the amount of $799,000, plus interest and legal costs totaling approximately $1.7 million.

In August 2002, in separate litigation from the above-mentioned judgment, we were awarded damages against Tele-Art by the High Court of the British Virgin Islands of approximately $34.0 million, which was reduced to a judgment in our favor against Tele-Art. In August 2002, pursuant to provisions of our Articles of Association, we redeemed and cancelled an additional 560,099 of our shares (giving effect to our three-for-one stock split and one-for-ten stock dividend that we made in 2003) beneficially owned by Tele-Art, offsetting approximately $3.5 million of such judgment against Tele-Art.

Thereafter, litigation among David Hague, the Bank of China (which had intervened in the British Virgin Islands proceeding claiming that it was a secured creditor of Tele-Art) and us continued for several years over our right to redeem our shares from Tele-Art. Eventually, the decisions in the controversy rendered by the British Virgin Islands courts were appealed to the Privy Council in the United Kingdom, the ultimate appellate court overseeing the courts and appeals of litigation in the British Virgin Islands.

The Privy Council heard the appeal in October 2006 and delivered its Judgment on November 20, 2006, ordering us to reinstate the 1,017,149 Nam Tai shares that we had previously redeemed from Tele-Art in 1999 and 2002 and to deliver them to Bank of China on account of its secured claim against Tele-Art. In accordance with that order, we reinstated our previously redeemed shares, registered them in the name of the Bank of China and delivered them to Bank of China in 2007.

We have been advised that Bank of China sold 539,830 of the reinstated shares in early September 2007 and applied the proceeds to the secured debt that Bank of China claimed was due to it from Tele-Art. Following its sale, Bank of China delivered to Glenn Harrigan, the successor to David Hauge as court-appointed Liquidator of Tele-Art, the 477,319 shares remaining from the reinstated shares Bank of China had sold. As the selling shareholder, Mr. Harrigan is offering these shares pursuant to this prospectus in the course of those liquidation proceedings in order to sell them to satisfy outstanding obligations for fees and expenses related to the Tele-Art liquidation proceedings and to pay or provide for the payment of Tele-Art's remaining creditors.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering our shares beneficially held by Mr. Harrigan, as the Liquidator of Tele-Art and selling shareholder, for sale from time to time after the date of this prospectus. The selling shareholder, as the Official Liquidator of Tele-Art, is entitled to, and will receive the net proceeds from sales of shares sold pursuant to this prospectus. Such proceeds, after payment of outstanding obligations for fees and expenses in connection with the Tele-Art liquidation proceedings, including those owing to Mr. Harrigan in his role as Tele-Art's Liquidator, will then be added to dividends accruing on the shares to be sold through the date of sale, if any, and applied by the Liquidator toward the claims of creditors of Tele-Art.

We are an unsecured creditor of Tele-Art and hold claims against Tele-Art's liquidation estate, including accrued interest and recoverable expenses through December 31, 2007, of approximately $45.7 million. As such, we expect the Liquidator to apply the net proceeds from the sale of shares and dividends accruing on the shares to be sold through the date of sale, if any, net of the Liquidator's outstanding fees and expenses, to reimburse us for amounts we have advanced in payment and satisfaction of the claims of Tele-Art's other creditors, to reimburse us for expenses we have advanced in connection with the registration of the shares and their sale and on account of our claims against Tele-Art.

The selling shareholder may sell all or a portion of the shares offered hereby from time to time directly or through one or more underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. If the shares are sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, the selling shareholder will be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agent's commissions. The shares may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions, through any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

the over-the-counter market;

transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;

the writing of options, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales;

transactions in which broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

If the selling shareholder effects such transactions by selling shares to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholder or commissions from purchasers of the shares for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved). In connection with sales of the shares or otherwise, the selling shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling shareholder may also sell shares short and deliver shares covered by this prospectus to close out short positions and to return borrowed shares in connection with such short sales. The selling shareholder may also loan or pledge shares to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares.

The selling shareholder may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares and, if there is a default in the performance of the secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares from time to time pursuant to this prospectus or any amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, amending, if necessary, the selling shareholder to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling shareholder under this prospectus. The selling shareholder also may transfer the shares in other circumstances in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling shareholder and any broker-dealer participating in a distribution of the shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any commission paid, or any discounts or concessions allowed to, any such broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. At the time a particular offering of the shares is made, a prospectus supplement, if required, will be distributed which will set forth the aggregate amount of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any broker-dealers or agents, any discounts, commissions and other terms constituting compensation from or on behalf of the selling shareholder and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to broker-dealers.

Table of Contents

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares offered in this offering may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states our shares may not be sold unless such shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

There can be no assurance that the selling shareholder will sell any or all of the shares registered pursuant to the shelf registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling shareholder and any other person participating in a distribution of the shares will be subject to applicable provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares by the selling shareholder and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in a distribution of the shares to engage in market-making activities, if any, with respect to our shares. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of our shares and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to our shares.

We will advance all fees and expenses of the registration of the shares and the offering (excluding underwriting discounts or commissions, if any, which, if incurred, will be paid from the proceeds of sale). Such advances will include, but not be limited to, the Securities and Exchange Commission filing fees, expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws, legal and accounting fees and expenses and any fees and expenses associated with the transfer of the shares to the purchasers. We expect that all such advances will be reimbursed to us by the Liquidator at the time he delivers payments toward our claims against Tele-Art's liquidation estate.

Once sold under the shelf registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, the shares will be freely tradable in the hands of purchasers other than our affiliates.

Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date; or

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to existing provisions or arrangements whereby the registrant may indemnify a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant against liabilities arising under the Securities Act, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
