FORM OF PROXY

I. INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

Solicitation of Proxies

Our Board of Directors is soliciting proxies for use at our Annual Meeting and any adjournments of that meeting. We first mailed this proxy statement, the accompanying form of proxy and our Annual Report to Shareholders for our fiscal year ending January 29, 2005 (fiscal 2004) on or about May 6, 2005.

Agenda Items

The agenda for the Annual Meeting is to:

1. Elect three directors; and
2. Conduct other business properly brought before the meeting.

Who Can Vote

You can vote at the Annual Meeting if you are a holder of our common stock, no par value per share (Common Stock), on the record date. The record date is the close of business on April 8, 2005. You will have one vote for each share of Common Stock. As of April 8, 2005, there were 19,295,938 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

How to Vote

For Shares Held Directly in the Name of the Shareholder

If you hold your shares in registered form and not through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you may vote your shares in one of two ways:

In Person. If you choose to vote in person, you can come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote in person; or Voting By Mail. If you choose to vote by mail, complete the enclosed proxy card, date and sign it, and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. If you sign your proxy card and return it without marking any voting instructions, your shares will be voted in favor of each of the proposals presented at the Annual Meeting.

For Shares Held Through a Bank, Brokerage Firm or Other Nominee

If you hold your shares through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you may vote your shares in any one of three ways:

In Person. If you choose to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee authorizing you to vote at the Annual Meeting. You can then come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote in person;

Voting By Mail. If you choose to vote by mail, complete and return to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee the voting instruction form provided to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee; or Voting By Telephone or Internet. If you choose to vote by telephone or Internet, vote in accordance with instructions set forth on the voting instruction form provided to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee.

Use of Proxies

Unless you tell us on the proxy card to vote differently, we plan to vote signed and returned proxies FOR the nominees for director. We do not now know of any other matters to come before the Annual Meeting. If they do, proxy holders will vote the proxies according to their best judgment.

Broker Non-Votes

A broker non-vote occurs when banks or brokerage firms holding shares on behalf of a shareholder do not receive voting instructions from the shareholder by a specified date before the Annual Meeting and are not permitted to vote those undirected shares on specified matters under applicable stock exchange rules. We have been advised that since the only matter being voted upon at the Annual Meeting is the election of directors, which is not among the specified matters that banks and brokerage firms are prohibited from voting undirected shares, there will be no broker non-votes at the Annual Meeting.

Revoking a Proxy or Changing Your Vote

For Shares Held Directly in the Name of the Shareholder

If you hold your shares in registered form and not through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised. You can revoke a proxy by:

Submitting a later-dated proxy by mail;

Sending a written notice to the Secretary of Kirklands. You must send any written notice of a revocation of a proxy so as to be delivered before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting to:

Kirklands, Inc.
805 N. Parkway
Jackson, TN 38305
Attention: Lowell E. Pugh, II
Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

; or

Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself revoke your proxy. You must also vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in order to effectively revoke your previously delivered proxy.

For Shares Held Through a Bank, Brokerage Firm or Other Nominee

If you hold your shares through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you may change your vote at any time by:

Submitting a later-dated voting instruction form by mail to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee;

Submitting a later-dated telephone or Internet vote in accordance with instructions set forth on the voting instruction form provided to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee; or

Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself revoke your voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. You must also vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in order to effectively revoke your previously delivered voting instructions. In order, however, to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting, you must obtain a legal proxy, executed in your favor, from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to be able to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Quorum Requirement

We need a quorum of shareholders to hold a valid Annual Meeting. A quorum will be present if the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting either attend the Annual Meeting in person or are represented by proxy. Broker non-votes and votes withheld are counted as present for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

Vote Required for Action

Directors are elected by a plurality vote of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Other actions are approved if the votes cast in favor of the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the question is one upon which a larger or different vote is required by express provision of law or by our charter or bylaws. Shares represented by proxies which withhold authority to vote will not be counted in the election of directors in favor of any nominee. IN THE ABSENCE OF SPECIFIC DIRECTION, SHARES REPRESENTED BY A PROXY WILL BE VOTED FOR THE ELECTION OF ALL DIRECTOR NOMINEES.

II. THE PROPOSAL TO BE VOTED ON

Election of Directors

We have three classes of directors, which are equal in size. The term for each class is three years. Class terms expire on a rolling basis, so that one class of directors is elected each year. The term for Class III directors will expire at the 2008 Annual Meeting.

The nominees for director this year are Robert E. Alderson, Carl Kirkland, and David M. Mussafer. Information about the nominees, the continuing directors and the Board of Directors is contained in the next section of this proxy statement entitled Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors expects that all of the nominees will be able and willing to serve as directors. If any nominee is not available, the proxies may be voted for another person nominated by the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy, or the size of the Board of Directors may be reduced.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of Robert E. Alderson, Carl Kirkland, and David M. Mussafer.

IV. INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Meetings

During fiscal 2004, the Board of Directors held six regular and special meetings. Other than John P. Oswald, all incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and all committees of the Board of Directors on which they served. While the Company encourages all members of the Board of Directors to attend annual meetings of the Company's shareholders, there is no formal policy as to their attendance. All but one of the members of the Board of Directors attended the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders.

Independence

Consistent with the new listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market (Nasdaq), a majority of the members of a listed company's board of directors must qualify as independent, as affirmatively determined by the board of directors. After review of all relevant transactions or relationships between each director, or any of his or her family members, and the Company, its senior management and its independent auditors, the Board affirmatively has determined that a majority of the Company's directors are independent directors within the meaning of the applicable Nasdaq listing standards. The Company's independent directors will meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions at which only independent directors are present.

Shareholder Communications

The Board of Directors provides a process by which shareholders may communicate with the Board. Shareholders who wish to communicate with the Board may do so by sending written communications addressed to the Board of Directors of Kirkland's, Inc., 805 N. Parkway, Jackson, TN 38305. The Company will forward all mail received at the Company's corporate office that is addressed to the Board of Directors or any member of the Board. On a periodic basis, all such communications will be compiled by the Secretary of the Company and submitted to the Board of Directors or the specific Board member to whom the communications are addressed.

Committees

The Board of Directors has three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Governance and Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter that outlines the duties of the Audit Committee. A copy of this charter is available at www.kirklands.com by clicking on Investor Relations and then clicking on Corporate Governance. The principal duties of the Audit Committee, among other things, are to:

Review and reassess the adequacy of the Audit Committee and its charter not less than annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for consideration and approval

Review with management and the Company's independent public accountants the Company's audited financial statements and related footnotes, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements

Meet periodically with management and the Company's independent public accountants to review the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps taken to monitor and control such exposures

Review and discuss quarterly reports from the Company's independent public accountants regarding all critical accounting policies and practices to be used

Obtain from the Company's independent public accountants their recommendation regarding internal controls and other matters relating to the accounting procedures and the books and records of the Company and the correction of controls deemed to be deficient

Pre-approve all auditing services and permitted non-audit services (including the fees for such services and terms thereof) to be performed for the Company by its independent public accountants

Adopt procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters

Review and approve any transactions between the Company and related parties

Members: Mr. Orr (Chairman), Mr. Oswald, Mr. Parks, and Mr. Spain. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined by the applicable rules and regulations of Nasdaq and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

The Board of Directors has determined that the Audit Committee does not have an audit committee financial expert as that term is defined in the SEC's rules and regulations. However, the Board of Directors believes that each of the members of the Audit Committee has demonstrated that he is able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company's balance sheets, statements of operations and statements of cash flow. As the Board of Directors believes that the current members of the Audit Committee are qualified to carry out all of the duties and responsibilities of the Company's Audit Committee, the Board does not believe that it is necessary at this time to actively search for an outside person to serve on the Board of Directors who would qualify as an audit committee financial expert.

Number of Meetings in fiscal 2004: 11

Compensation Committee

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter that outlines the duties of the Compensation Committee. A copy of this charter is available at www.kirklands.com by clicking on Investor Relations and then clicking on Corporate Governance. The principal duties of the Compensation Committee, among other things, are to:

Review and recommend to the Board the annual salary, bonus, stock options and other benefits, direct and indirect, of the Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer

Review and recommend to the Board new executive compensation programs

Establish and periodically review policies for the administration of executive compensation programs

Review and recommend to the Board the terms of any employment agreement executed by the Company with an executive officer of the Company

Review and recommend to the Board the appropriate structure and amount of compensation for the Directors

Review and approve material changes in the Company's employee benefit plans

Members: Mr. Mussafer (Chairman), Mr. Spain and Mr. Orr. All of the members of the Compensation Committee are independent as defined by the applicable rules and regulations of Nasdaq.

Number of Meetings in fiscal 2004: 3

Governance and Nominating Committee

The Board of Directors approved the formation of the Governance and Nominating Committee in March 2004 and has adopted a written charter that outlines its duties. A copy of this charter is available at www.kirklands.com by clicking on Investor Relations and then clicking on Corporate Governance. The principal duties of the Governance and Nominating Committee, among other things, are to:

Review and make recommendations on the range of skills and expertise which should be represented on the Board, and the eligibility criteria for individual Board and committee membership

Identify and recommend potential candidates for election or re-election to the Board

Implement a policy and procedures with regard to the consideration of any director candidates recommended by security holders

Review and recommend to the Board the appropriate structure of Board committees, committee assignments and the position of chairman of each committee

Members: John P. Oswald (Chairman), Mr. Mussafer, Mr. Orr and Mr. Spain. All of the members of the Governance and Nominating Committee are independent as defined by the applicable rules and regulations of Nasdaq and the SEC.

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider director candidates who have relevant business experience, are accomplished in their respective fields, and who possess the skills and expertise to make a significant contribution to the Board of Directors, the Company and its shareholders. The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider nominees for election to the Board of Directors that are recommended by shareholders, provided that a complete description of the nominees' qualifications, experience and background, together with a statement signed by each nominee in which he or she consents to act as such, accompany the recommendations. Such recommendations should be submitted in compliance with the procedures outlined on page 21 under the heading Shareholder Proposals for the 2006 Annual Meeting and should not include self-nominations. The Governance and Nominating Committee applies the same criteria to nominees recommended by shareholders as discussed above.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation that follows shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing made by us under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), or the Exchange Act, notwithstanding any general statement contained in any such filing incorporating this proxy statement by reference except to the extent we incorporate such Report by specific reference.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors has furnished the following report on executive compensation:

General

The Compensation Committee develops and implements compensation policies, plans and programs for Kirkland's. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of David M. Mussafer (Chairman), Murray M. Spain and R. Wilson Orr, III.

The Company's compensation package for its President and Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers consists of base salary and variable incentive compensation, consisting of two parts: a cash bonus and stock options.

Base Salary

The Board has established an annual salary plan and policy for the Company's executive officers based in part on industry and peer group data. The base salary component of executive compensation includes compensation for discharging job responsibilities and reflects the executive officer's performance over time. Individual salary adjustments take into account Kirkland's salary increase guidelines for the fiscal year and individual performance contributions for the fiscal year, as well as sustained performance contributions over a number of years and significant changes in job responsibilities, if any.

There was no increase in the base salary of the President and Chief Executive Officer for fiscal 2004, while the Company's other executive officers received base salary increases ranging from zero to two percent.

Bonus

The annual bonus component for executive officers, including Kirkland's President and Chief Executive Officer, is subject to the discretion of the Compensation Committee. In exercising that discretion, the Compensation Committee has established officer-specific bonus criteria based upon the following three components: 50% of the bonus is determined based upon Kirkland's financial performance, 40% is based upon individual business goals and 10% is at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. In addition, each executive officer is eligible to receive an additional bonus payment in the event that certain financial performance targets are exceeded.

The Compensation Committee's policy is to set the specific target criteria for bonus awards on or before April 30 of each calendar year. Final bonus payments are determined and paid no later than April 15 of the following calendar year. In April 2005, the Committee determined that certain executive officers had achieved their personal performance goals for fiscal 2004 so as to entitle them to a portion of their total bonus potential under their respective employment agreements. Based on the Committee's review, the Compensation Committee approved a fiscal 2004 bonus for the President and Chief Executive Officer in the amount of $150,000. The Committee also approved a fiscal 2004 bonus for one other executive officer.

Stock Options, Restricted Stock and Stock Appreciation Rights

The Compensation Committee established guidelines for management to use for recommending grants of stock options, restricted stock and stock appreciation rights under Kirkland's 2002 Equity Incentive Plan. These guidelines include the following criteria for annual grants: (1) in recognition of increased job responsibilities in connection with a promotion, (2) in recognition for outstanding individual performance significantly exceeding expected levels and (3) new grants to newly hired senior employees. However, it is the Compensation Committee's belief that annual grants should not become simply an across the board issuance done on an annual basis without meeting one of the three criteria listed above. In fiscal 2004, no option grants were made to the President and Chief Executive Officer or any other executive officers other than Dwayne F. Cochran, who received an option grant in connection with his October 2004 hiring as the Company's Executive Vice President of Store Operations.

Reynolds C. Faulkner

We have entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Faulkner that expires in June 2006, subject to automatic successive one-year extensions if not terminated. The terms of that agreement are summarized below.

Mr. Faulkner's base salary is required to be reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee and may be increased from time to time (but not less than 5% per year) in the committee's discretion. Mr. Faulkner is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 100% of his base salary. receive a bonus of up to $45,000 in June 2005, contingent upon his continued employment with us. The Compensation Committee will determine the bonus amount.

Mr. Faulkner is also entitled to a monthly automobile allowance and supplemental life insurance that would pay a benefit of $500,000 upon his death.

If Mr. Faulkner is terminated by the Company without cause and/or resigns his employment for specified reasons, he would be entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment equal to the discounted present value of 18 months salary, or, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, the payment of monthly severance payments equal to 1/12th of his annual salary for 18 months, as well as continued health benefits for 18 months.

Mr. Faulkner is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants during his employment by us and for a period of three years following any cessation of that employment.

Dwayne F. Cochran

We have entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Cochran in October 2004. The terms of that agreement are summarized below.

Mr. Cochran's initial base salary is $300,000 and is required to be reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee and may be increased from time to time in the committee's discretion. Mr. Cochran is eligible to receive an annual bonus, the amount of which will be determined by the Compensation Committee.

Mr. Cochran received an initial signing bonus of $73,460, which must be repaid on a prorated basis if Mr. Cochran's employment terminates prior to the first anniversary of his employment with us. If Mr. Cochran remains employed and in good standing, on the first anniversary of his employment he will receive an additional signing bonus of approximately $35,000. In connection with the commencement of his employment, Mr. Cochran received an incentive stock option to purchase 100,000 shares of Company stock. The options will vest over a three-year period and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. Mr. Cochran is also entitled to receive an additional incentive stock option for no fewer than 25,000 shares of common stock in 2006.

Mr. Cochran is entitled to a monthly automobile allowance or use of a company car, supplemental life insurance commensurate with that provided to other senior executives and relocation expenses.

If Mr. Cochran is terminated by the Company without cause or resigns his employment for specified reasons, he would be entitled to 12 months of severance benefits consisting of the continuation of his health insurance benefits and regular cash installments in an annual amount equal to his average annual cash compensation for the prior three years. The Company may extend these benefits for an additional 12 months. If Mr. Cochran resigns not for specified reasons, the Company has the option to pay Mr. Cochran severance payments and continued health benefits for up to 24 months after his employment terminates.

Mr. Cochran is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants during his employment by us and during any period we make severance payments to him.

C. Edmond Wise, Jr.

In December 2000, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Wise. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Wise served as our Senior Vice President of Store Operations. In October 2004 we entered into a Separation Agreement with Mr. Wise and his employment with us terminated. Under the terms of that agreement and the Employment Agreement, Mr. Wise is subject to a non-competition provision prohibiting him from competing against us during the two-year period after termination and is entitled to receive salary (at an annual salary rate of $209,100 per year) and health insurance continuation for a period of nine months after termination. However, if Mr. Wise becomes employed by another company consistent with the terms of the non-competition provision, then all post-employment salary and benefit continuation will cease.

VII. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Indebtedness of Management

In May 2002, we loaned $217,000 to Reynolds C. Faulkner, our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The note bears interest at the rate of 4.75% per year which is payable over the term of the note. The note matures in May 2005 and is due and payable in full at that time. The loan is collateralized by marketable securities having a value of no less than the original principal amount of the loan together with 125,526 shares of Common Stock owned by Mr. Faulkner. The security agreement between Mr. Faulkner and us requires Mr. Faulkner to supply additional collateral at any time the value of existing collateral falls below 125% of the then principal amount of the loan. In addition, in accordance with the requirements of the note, in April 2003 we advanced an additional $381,401 of principal to Mr. Faulkner subject to the same interest rate and principal repayment terms as the original principal amount. Our Board of Directors and our Audit Committee approved the loan. On April 29, 2005, the loan was repaid in full.

Charter of Airplanes

We rent aircraft for business travel from a company owned by Carl Kirkland, Chairman Emeritus of our Board of Directors. We spent approximately $15,000 for the rental of aircraft from this company in fiscal 2004. Management considers the terms of these aircraft rentals to be at arms length and reasonably equivalent to terms we could have obtained through negotiations with an unaffiliated third party.

Real Estate Lease

In March 2004, Kirkland's Stores, Inc. entered into a lease for 11,700 square feet of retail real estate located in the Columns development in Jackson, Tennessee. The property is owned by Westside Venture, a joint venture in which Carl Kirkland, Chairman Emeritus, and Robert Alderson, our Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of our Board of Directors, hold minority equity positions. The term of the lease commenced in May 2004 and continues for an initial period of 5 years, with two 5-year renewal options. The lease provides for minimum rental payments of $12,000 per month. The lease also provides for the payment of customary additional charges, including taxes and insurance. In fiscal 2004, the Company paid total rent and ancillary charges under the lease of approximately $116,000. This lease has been reviewed and approved by our Board and Audit Committee. Management considers the terms of this lease to be at arms length and reasonably equivalent to terms we could have obtained through negotiations with an unaffiliated third party.

Reporting Persons are additionally required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Pre-Approval Policy

The Audit Committee's pre-approval guidelines with respect to pre-approval of audit and non-audit services are summarized below.

General

Under the terms of its pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee is required to pre-approve audit and non-audit services to be performed by the Company's independent public accountants in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the independent public accountants' independence. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent public accountants has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. Any proposed services exceeding pre-approved cost levels requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has delegated pre-approval authority to the Audit Committee Chairperson and may in the future delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated must report any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Audit Services

The annual audit services engagement terms and fees are subject to the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee approves, if necessary, any changes in terms, conditions and fees resulting from changes in audit scope, Company structure or other matters. In addition to the annual audit services engagement specifically approved by the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee may grant general pre-approval for other audit services, which are those services that only the independent public accountants reasonably can provide.

Audit-Related Services

Audit-related services are assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements or that are traditionally performed by the independent public accountants. The Audit Committee believes that the provision of audit-related services does not impair the independence of the auditor.

Tax Services

The Audit Committee believes that the independent public accountants can provide tax services to the Company, such as tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice without impairing the independence of such independent public accountants. However, the Audit Committee will not permit the retention of the independent public accountants in connection with a transaction initially recommended by the independent auditor, the purpose of which may be tax avoidance and the tax treatment of which may not be supported in the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations.

All Other Services

Any services to be performed by the independent public accountants not classified in any of the aforementioned categories must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Pre-Approval Fee Levels

Pre-approval fee levels for all services to be provided by the independent public accountants are established annually by the Audit Committee. Any proposed services exceeding these levels require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.
