DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

We established the BancorpSouth, Inc. 1998 Stock Option Plan to provide equity-based awards to eligible individuals. The plan provides for the grant of options that qualify as incentive stock options under section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, in limited circumstances, and options that are not so qualified. Incentive stock options and nonqualified stock options are collectively referred to as options in this prospectus.

Eligibility

Options may be awarded under the plan to individuals as an inducement for them to enter into employment with BancorpSouth or its affiliates and to certain other individuals who are not directors or officers of BancorpSouth. Otherwise, the plan only authorizes awarding options to fulfill the terms of mergers or acquisitions in which BancorpSouth is required to convert, replace or adjust options or rights to acquire securities of other entities.

Shares Available for Grant

The maximum number of shares of our common stock that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of an award under the plan is 1,000,000 shares. This number is subject to adjustment for changes to our capitalization that result from a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination, recapitalization or reclassification. Common stock that is allocated to an option that has terminated may be reserved for issuance upon exercise of a new option.

Duration, Amendment and Termination

The plan will continue indefinitely but may be terminated or amended by our board of directors at any time. Our shareholders would need to approve any amendment to the plan that would allow our directors or officers to participate in the plan, except where directors or officers are granted options under the plan as an inducement to enter into employment with BancorpSouth or its affiliates.

Table of Contents

General Plan Administration

The plan is administered by the Executive Compensation and Stock Incentive Committee of our board of directors. The committee members are appointed by the board and meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. The committee has full discretion to grant options to any individual who is eligible under the terms of the plan. The committee determines the number of shares subject to an option and the terms of exercise (including the exercise price).

Terms of Options

Grant of Option and Exercise Price. All options are subject to the terms and conditions stated in the plan and in an individual's option agreement. The exercise price of an option must be at least the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, unless the option is issued to replace options that are assumed in a merger or acquisition, in which case the exercise price will be determined by the Executive Compensation and Stock Incentive Committee or the board of directors in a manner that is consistent with section 424(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Certain restrictions apply to different types of options. The following types of options may be granted:

Nonqualified Option: A nonqualified option entitles the holder to purchase stock from us at the price stated in the option agreement. An individual is subject to tax on the exercise of a nonqualified option (see Federal Tax Information below).

Incentive Option: An incentive option is similar to a nonqualified option, except that the holder can enjoy certain tax advantages (see Federal Tax Information below). Incentive options may be granted only to replace incentive stock options that are converted in connection with a merger or acquisition.

An award under the plan is deemed to be granted at the time the committee approves the grant and determines the number of shares of our common stock that are subject to the award. If an award is granted as a replacement or substitute for awards in connection with a merger or acquisition transaction, the award will be deemed to be granted on the original date of grant by the acquired entity.

Time and Method of Exercise. Options become vested or exercisable over a period of time that is stated in the applicable option agreement. Individuals may exercise options by notifying us and tendering payment of the exercise price, including amounts that may be required for tax withholdings. Generally, outstanding options will become fully exercisable upon a change in the control of BancorpSouth, as described in the plan. We are required to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service appropriate income and other taxes upon the exercise of a nonqualified option.

Payment of the exercise price of an option may be made in cash, through a broker-assisted trade or by a method approved by the committee.

Delivery of Stock. Only whole shares of our common stock will be issued under the plan. We or our transfer agent will deliver newly issued shares of our common stock as soon as administratively feasible after exercise of an option.

Termination of Options. Rights to acquire stock under an option are forfeited on the date on which an option terminates. Each option agreement will specify the dates on which an option will terminate.

Transferability. Options granted to an individual under the plan generally are not transferable or assignable, except for transfers by will or the laws of descent and distribution. However, the committee may permit certain transfers of nonqualified options as set forth in the corresponding option agreement.

Charges, Deductions and Liens. No fees, commissions or other charges are assessed by us for the issuance of our common stock under the plan. The plan makes no provision for liens on an interest of any participant.

Table of ContentsResale Restrictions

We have registered the shares of our common stock issuable under the plan with the SEC. However, we have adopted an insider trading policy that prohibits an employee of ours or our subsidiaries (and others possessing material, non-public information about us) from buying or selling our common stock at certain times. Federal securities laws also generally prohibit persons from buying or selling our common stock at any time they know material information about us that is not public.

Individuals who are affiliates (a term that generally includes directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders) of BancorpSouth may not sell shares purchased under the plan unless the conditions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 are satisfied or the shares are registered for resale with the SEC. For individuals who are not our affiliates, there are no additional restrictions on selling stock acquired under the plan. In all resales, premature disposition of our common stock may result in adverse tax consequences (see Federal Tax Information below).

Federal Tax Information

Generally, an individual does not recognize federal income tax on the grant of an option. In addition, an individual will generally not recognize federal income tax if a previously granted option is assumed or substituted in connection with a merger or acquisition and the number of underlying shares and exercise price are adjusted so that economic benefit of the option does not change as a result of the assumption or substitution and no additional benefits are provided to the option holder. Tax treatment thereafter depends upon the type of option involved and the amount of time it has been held. This summary of tax information is current, but is based on federal tax law that is subject to change at any time.

Incentive Options. An individual is not subject to tax on the exercise of an incentive option. However, the exercise of an incentive option gives rise to a preference under the Alternative Minimum Tax rules. Alternative Minimum Tax preferences that exceed limits specified in the Internal Revenue Code can result in Alternative Minimum Tax liability in some situations. Otherwise, taxation is postponed until the individual sells the stock acquired through an incentive option. Provided that the individual holds the stock for at least two years after the incentive option is granted and one year after the date of exercise, the individual will be subject to capital gains tax on the difference between the price paid to exercise the incentive option and the fair market value of the stock at the time it is sold. However, if the stock is sold before the end of the holding period for incentive options, the sale is treated as a disqualifying disposition and the individual is taxed at ordinary income rates in the year of sale in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the exercise date over the exercise price and (2) the excess of the sale price of the stock over the exercise price. Any additional gain or loss realized on the date of sale in a disqualifying disposition is subject to capital gains tax treatment. Reduced capital gains rates apply if the stock is held for at least 12 months after exercise.

Example 1: Assume an individual is granted an incentive stock option to purchase 100 shares of stock for $25 per share and exercises the option a year later when the stock is worth $35 per share. If the holder sells all 100 shares a year later for $42 per share, the holder will recognize a capital gain of $1,700 ($42 per share less $25 exercise price). If, instead, the value of the stock is $25 at the time of sale, there is no income recognized.

Example 2: Same facts as above, except that the holder sells the stock for $37 per share six months after exercise. This is a disqualifying disposition and results in ordinary income of $1,000 ($35 per share value at exercise less $25 exercise price). He will also recognize a capital gain of $200 ($37 value at sale less $35 basis).

Example 3: Same facts as in Example 2, but the stock declined in value to $34 per share at the time of the disqualifying disposition. The sale at a lower price results in ordinary income of $900 ($34 value per share at sale less $25 exercise price).

Example 4: Assume an individual is granted an incentive stock option by target company to purchase 100 shares of target company's stock for $20 per share and target company is acquired by us one year later when its stock is worth $30 per share. The option has $1,000 of built-in gain at the time of the acquisition. Under the terms of the acquisition, all of the outstanding options to purchase shares of target company's stock are replaced with options to purchase shares of our common stock. The options to purchase our common stock will be priced so that the $1,000 of built-in gain is preserved, although the number of shares and the per-share exercise price may be adjusted to reflect the conversion of shares of target company stock into shares of our common stock. The subsequent exercise of the option and sale of the stock received would be governed by the principles in the other examples.

Nonqualified Options. An individual will be taxed at the time he or she exercises a nonqualified option on the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of our common stock at the time of exercise. This difference is taxed as ordinary compensation income. The individual's tax basis in our common stock acquired through a nonqualified option is the exercise price plus the amount of taxable income that is recognized. Any gain on the subsequent sale of our common stock acquired through a nonqualified option is subject to capital gains tax treatment. Reduced capital gains rates apply if the stock is held for at least 12 months after exercise.

Example 5: Same facts as in Example 1 above, only the option is nonqualified. There is no taxable event upon grant. Upon exercise, the holder will recognize ordinary income of $1,000 ($35 value at exercise less $25), even though he did not immediately sell the stock. When he sells at $42 per share, he will recognize a capital gain of $700 ($42 value at sale less $35 basis).

We are entitled to a tax deduction on the amount of ordinary income that the individual recognizes on the exercise of a nonqualified option or upon the disqualifying disposition of our common stock acquired through an incentive option. We do not obtain a tax deduction upon the grant of an option or the exercise of an incentive option.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Upon the exercise of options granted under the plan, we will receive the exercise price of these options. The exercise price of each option is determined on the date the option is granted under the plan and, accordingly, may vary between options granted under the plan. We intend to use the proceeds from these option exercises for working capital and general corporate purposes. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the resale of any shares of our common stock issued upon exercise of these options or otherwise under this prospectus.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We intend to issue shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus in connection with the exercise of options we grant under the plan, which shares will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange. We will be responsible for the expenses of any such issuance, other than the exercise price of the options. No commissions, discounts, concessions or other compensation will be paid to any underwriter or broker-dealer in connection with such issuance.

The decision to exercise the options to purchase shares of our common stock must be made pursuant to each investor's evaluation of his or her best interests. Our board of directors does not make any recommendation to prospective investors regarding whether they should exercise their options granted under the plan. The shares of common stock obtained upon the exercise of options granted under the plan may be sold from time to time on the New York Stock Exchange, at prices then prevailing, in negotiated transactions or otherwise; however, affiliates of BancorpSouth may not sell shares purchased under the plan unless the conditions of Rule 144 are satisfied or the shares are registered for resale with the SEC. The selling shareholders of shares of our common stock obtained upon the exercise of options may effect these transactions by selling their shares to or through broker-dealers. These broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or the purchasers of shares from whom such broker-dealer may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal or both.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of shares of our common stock offered under this prospectus will be passed upon on our behalf by Riley, Caldwell, Cork & Alvis, P.A., Tupelo, Mississippi.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

A. Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation provide that it will indemnify and, upon request, advance expenses to any person (or his estate) who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any legal proceeding because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability incurred in that proceeding (a) to the full extent permitted by Section 79-4-8.51 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, and (b) despite the fact that such person did not meet the standard of conduct set forth in Section 79-4-8.51(a) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act or would be disqualified for indemnification under Section 79-4-8.51(d) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, if a determination is made by a person or persons enumerated in Section 79-4-8.55(b) of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act that (i) the person seeking indemnity is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all of the relevant circumstances, and (ii) his acts or omissions did not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. A request for reimbursement or advancement of expenses prior to final disposition of the proceeding must be accompanied by an undertaking to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to indemnification and he did not meet the requisite standard of conduct, but it need not be accompanied by an affirmation that the person seeking indemnity believed he has met the standard of conduct. BancorpSouth may, to the full extent permitted by law, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any such person against any liability which may be asserted against him or her.

BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws provide that it will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any legal proceeding (other than a derivative action for which indemnification is described below) because he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any expenses or awards actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith to the fullest extent provided in BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and by law. BancorpSouth also will indemnify any person who was or is or is threatened to be made a party to any derivative suit with respect to BancorpSouth because that person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action unless he is found to have breached his duty to BancorpSouth to discharge his duties in good faith and with the care which an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of BancorpSouth, unless, despite such finding of liability, the court determines that he is entitled to indemnity. BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws also provide that BancorpSouth may (i) advance to the person seeking indemnity the expenses incurred in defending a proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking that he will repay amounts advanced unless it ultimately is determined that he is entitled to be indemnified, and (ii) purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of BancorpSouth, or is or was serving at the request of BancorpSouth as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership or other entity, against any liability arising out of his acting as such, whether or not BancorpSouth would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws.

B. Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

In addition to the foregoing provisions of BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, officers and directors of BancorpSouth and its subsidiaries may be indemnified by BancorpSouth pursuant to Sections 79-4-8.50 through 79-4-8.59 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

C. Insurance.

BancorpSouth maintains and pays premiums on an insurance policy on behalf of its officers and directors against liability asserted against or incurred by such persons in or arising from their capacity as such.

D. Securities and Exchange Commission Policy on Indemnification.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling BancorpSouth pursuant to the foregoing provisions, BancorpSouth has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 17. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) (§ 230.424(b) of this chapter) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date;

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
