PROXY STATEMENT

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Invivo Corporation (the Company) for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on December 12, 2002 at 10:00 a.m. at the Company's offices located at 4900 Hopyard Rd., Suite 210, Pleasanton, California, 94588, including at any adjournment of the Annual Meeting.

Voting

The record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof has been fixed as the close of business on October 31, 2002. As of that date, there were outstanding 4,477,399 shares of Common Stock of the Company. Each stockholder will be entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held on all matters to be voted upon. Abstentions are considered as shares present and entitled to vote and therefore will have the same effect as a vote against a matter presented at the meeting. Broker non-votes are considered as shares not entitled to vote with respect to such matters, but are counted toward the establishment of a quorum. Subject to prior revocation, all shares represented at the meeting by properly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with specifications on the proxy. If no specification is made, the shares will be voted in favor of: (i) the election of nominees provided for herein as directors; (ii) to amend the Company's 1994 Stock Option Plan to increase by 100,000 the number of shares covered by the Plan; and (iii) the ratification of KPMG LLP as independent public accountants of the Company.

Revocability of Proxies

Any person giving a proxy pursuant to this solicitation has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. It may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive office, 4900 Hopyard Rd., Suite 210, Pleasanton, California, 94588, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Solicitation

The Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the enclosed proxy and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation material will be furnished to stockholders, and to brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. The Company may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation by directors, officers or other regular employees of the Company. No additional compensation will be paid for any such services.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are being mailed to all stockholders on or about November 15, 2002.

PROPOSAL 1

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Each director to be elected will hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his successor is elected and has qualified, or until his death, resignation or removal. All of the nominees listed below are currently directors of the Company. There are no family relationships among executive officers or directors of the Company, except that Mr. Hawkins, the President, Chief Executive Officer, Secretary and a director, and Mr. Glenn, the Chief Financial Officer, are brothers-in-law.

MANAGEMENT RECOMMENDS A VOTE IN FAVOR OF EACH NAMED NOMINEE

Shares of Common Stock represented by executed proxies will be voted, if authority to do so is not withheld, for the election of the four nominees named below. In the event that any nominee should become unavailable for election as a result of an unexpected occurrence, such shares will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the Board of Directors may propose. Each person nominated for election has agreed to serve if elected, and the Board of Directors have no reason to believe that any nominee will be unavailable to serve. The four candidates receiving the highest number of the affirmative votes cast at the Annual Meeting will be elected directors of the Company. The authorized number of directors is presently set at five members, and thus the Board of Directors is proposing at this time to leave one vacancy on the Board of Directors. Executed proxies will not be voted for the election of more than four directors.

Employment Agreements and Change-of-Control Arrangements

In July 2002, the Company renewed one year employment agreements with each of the named executive officers pursuant to which the Company has agreed to pay a specific severance amount if the executive officer is employed by the Company on the occurrence of a change in control, unless the officer resigns voluntarily or is terminated with cause within 90 days following a change of control of Invivo. For James B. Hawkins, the severance payment will be $992,000, an amount equal to two times the aggregate of the executive officer's annual base salary and target bonus plus other benefits and expenses. For Stuart Baumgarten, John F. Glenn, and Brent Johnson, the severance payment will be $297,000, $240,000 and $244,000, respectively, which amounts are equal to the aggregate of each executive officer's annual base salary and target bonus plus other benefits and expenses. In addition to the severance payment, upon a change of control of Invivo, any unvested stock option to purchase shares of common stock of Invivo then held by the executive officer will become 100% vested and exercisable immediately prior to such change of control. If the Company terminates Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Glenn, Mr. Baumgarten or Mr. Johnson without just cause, but not following a change of control of Invivo, the Company has agreed to pay such executive officer one-half of the severance payment amount that such executive officers would have received for a termination without cause after a change of control of Invivo. These agreements further established each executive officer's base salary and target annual bonus for the one-year term of the agreements.

In October 2001, the Company renewed a one year employment agreement with F. Larry Young pursuant to which the Company agreed to pay $258,100, which is an amount equal to the aggregate of his annual base salary and target bonus plus other benefits and expenses, if the executive officer is employed by the Company on the occurrence of a change in control, unless the officer resigns voluntarily or is terminated with cause within 90 days following a change of control of Invivo. As a result of the May 2002 sale of the assets of the subsidiary Lumidor Safety Corporation, Mr. Young, the former President of Lumidor and a former executive officer of the Company, received this severance payment as if a change of control of the Company had occurred.

The Company has entered into an agreement with its director, Mr. Sarlo providing for Mr. Sarlo to perform consulting services in connection with the Company's evaluation of strategic alternatives that may arise from time to time. Mr. Sarlo will not receive any additional cash compensation for this consulting work, but the Company will make a payment of $250,000 upon a change in control transaction. Unless extended, the agreement will not apply to a transaction unless a definitive agreement is entered into before July 1, 2003.

Director Compensation

Members of the Board of Directors who are not officers of the Company are entitled to receive fees of $600 for each Board of Directors meeting attended, except for Ms. DeBuono who receives $1,500 for each board meeting attended, and reimbursement for travel expenses. Ms. DeBuono also receives an annual retainer fee for consulting services of $10,000.

Mr. Goggio, Mr. Sarlo and Ms. DeBuono each received options to purchase 4,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock in fiscal 2002 pursuant to the automatic grant provisions of the 1994 Stock Option Plan. All elected directors will be entitled to receive additional annual grants of options to purchase 4,000 shares of Common Stock under the 1994 Stock Option Plan on the date of the annual meeting of stockholders and each year for as long as they serve as independent directors of the Company.

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers. Such agreements require the Company to indemnify such individuals to the full extent permitted by law.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Mr. Goggio, Mr. Sarlo and Ms. DeBuono serve as the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. None of the members of the Compensation Committee are an employee of the Company. Mr. Goggio is the President and Chairman of the Board of Pillar Corporation. See Director Compensation above for a description of options granted to, and consulting fees paid to, Messrs. Goggio and Sarlo and Ms. DeBuono.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Mr. Goggio, Mr. Sarlo and Ms. DeBuono. The Compensation Committee determines on an annual basis the cash compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the senior executive officers of the Company. In doing so, the Compensation Committee is apprised of stock option awards made to these executives by the Board of Directors.

The Compensation Committee believes that in order for the Company to succeed it must be able to attract and retain qualified executive officers. In determining the type and amount of executive officer compensation, the objectives of the Compensation Committee are to provide levels of base compensation and bonuses that will attract and retain talented executive officers and align their interests with the success of the Company. The Company's executive officer compensation program is comprised of base salary, an annual cash bonus, and stock options. The Company's compensation policies seek to enhance the profitability of the Company and increase stockholder value.

Base Salaries

The Company's policy is to maintain base salaries competitive with salaries paid to similarly situated executive officers in other middle market companies (i.e. those with sales of $100 million or less) that are believed to be comparable for compensation purposes by the Compensation Committee. Adjustments to base compensation will generally be made based upon competitive market conditions as well as assigned responsibility and performance as measured against specific goals and objectives of the Company and individual employees. The Compensation Committee has not established a particular group or listing of generally comparable companies for this purpose and may evaluate different companies on a year to year basis.

Bonuses

An integral part of the Company's compensation of senior executive officers has been the annual payment of cash bonuses. The amount of these bonuses is based in part on the review of compensation practices of comparably sized companies referred to in the above paragraph. Further, the amount of bonuses in any year is significantly dependent on the Company's operating performance relative to its goals, as well as to other considerations that may be deemed relevant in any given year or instance by the Compensation Committee.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In determining the compensation of Mr. Hawkins, the Compensation Committee evaluated Mr. Hawkins' responsibilities and performance and the overall results of the Company to determine the total compensation paid. Mr. Hawkins' base compensation level increased to $278,250 for fiscal 2002 as compared to $265,000 for fiscal 2001. For fiscal 2002, Mr. Hawkins received a bonus of $150,000 under the executive bonus plan.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with Invivo management the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. In December, 2001 the Audit Committee discussed with KPMG LLP, the Company's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2001. At the December, 2002 Audit Committee meeting, any items required to be communicated by the independent auditors in accordance with SAS 61 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 will be discussed. The committee members received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The committee members also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by KPMG is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence and has discussed auditors' independence with KPMG.

Based on its review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in Invivo Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS REPORT

The Board of Directors administers the stock option plans including the grants of stock options.

The specific objective of the Stock Option Plan is to align the long-term interests of the Company's officers and employees with those of stockholders by creating a strong link between executive pay and stockholder return. Additionally, because options are subject to forfeiture if the employee leaves the Company prior to their becoming exercisable, options provide an incentive to remain with the Company long term. The Board of Directors makes specific awards of options based on an individual's ability to impact Company-wide performance and in light of the total compensation appropriate for the individual's position. A total of 109,000 stock options were granted to executive officers in fiscal 2002. Of these stock options, 40,000 were granted to Mr. Hawkins.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of the Company's common Stock to file reports of their initial ownership of the Company's Common Stock and subsequent changes in such ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) within prescribed time periods. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed.

Based solely on review of copies of SEC Forms 3,4, and 5, and any amendments to such forms furnished to the Company, the Company believes that with respect to the Company's most recent fiscal year all Section 16(a) filing obligations were met on a timely basis except for Mr. Sarlo who filed a Form 4 regarding the sale of 900 shares three months late.

The following performance graph compares the performance of the Company's Common Stock to the NASDAQ Stock Market (U.S.) Index and to the NASDAQ Non-Financial Index. Given the diversity of its businesses, the Company was unable to identify a peer group of companies based on a common business. The graph assumes that the value of the investment in the Company's common stock and each index was $100 at June 30, 1997 and that all dividends were reinvested.

PROPOSAL 2APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO 1994 STOCK OPTION PLAN

In October 1994, the Company adopted an Incentive Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). The options granted under the Plan may be either incentive stock options, within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or non-qualified stock options. The Plan is designed to enhance the Company's ability to attract and retain qualified employees, directors and consultants. In addition, the Plan is designed to provide an inducement to selected employees and other persons to advance the interests of the Company by providing or increasing the ownership interest of such persons in the Company. Approximately 211 people are currently eligible to participate in the Plan which includes directors, non-director officers, and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries including officers who are not executive officers. The Plan is interpreted and is administered by the Board of Directors which has the authority to determine the recipients of options under the Plan, the time of grant of the options, and the number of shares covered by the grant and certain other terms and provisions of each option granted. Any rights granted under the Plan must be granted within ten years of the Plan's effective date of October 6, 1994.

Table of Contents

Each person who was a director and not an employee of the Company on the date of adoption of the Plan received a non-qualified stock option covering 8,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company. Thereafter, each director of the Company who is not an employee of the Company receives a non-qualified stock option covering 4,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company immediately following each annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (provided that a person whose term expires on such day and who is not reelected to the Board of Directors shall not receive such an option). Each such option has an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock of the Company on the date of the annual meeting to which it relates. Each of the non-employee nominees for director at this meeting who is elected will receive a non-qualified option covering 4,000 shares.

Unless the stock option agreement executed by the optionee expressly provides otherwise, (i) an option granted to an officer or other key employee or consultant shall become exercisable on a cumulative basis as to one-quarter of the total number of shares covered thereby on each of the first, second, third, and fourth anniversary dates of the grant of the option, (ii) an option granted to a director who is not an employee of the Company shall become exercisable on a cumulative basis as to one-half of the total number of shares covered thereby on each of the first and second anniversary dates of the date of grant of the option, and (iii) an option shall not be exercisable after the expiration of ten years from the date of grant. Any option granted to an executive officer or director of the Company shall in no event be exercisable until the elapse of six months from the date of its grant.

The exercise price for incentive stock options granted under the Plan may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the underlying shares as of the date of grant, provided that if the recipient holds 10% or more of the aggregate voting power of the Company, then the exercise price must not be less than 110% of such fair market value. The exercise price of any non-qualified stock option shall not be less than 85% of the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. On November 4, 2002, the closing sale price of Invivo's Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ Stock Market was $13.36 per share. Payment of the exercise price shall be made in cash or in shares of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company which have been held by the optionee for at least six months (or such other period as is specified by the Board of Directors) or in a combination of cash and such stock, except that the Board of Directors in its sole discretion may authorize payment by any optionee (for all or part of his or her purchase price) by a promissory note or such other form of legal consideration that may be acceptable to the Board of Directors. Payment may also be made by delivering a copy of irrevocable instructions to a broker to deliver promptly to the Company the amount of sale or loan proceeds sufficient to pay the purchase price, and, if required, the amount of any federal, state, local or foreign withholding taxes.

The grant of an incentive stock option should have no tax effect on the Company or the optionee to whom it is granted, and there generally is no tax upon exercise of the option. If an optionee does not dispose of shares acquired upon exercise of the option within two years of the date of granting the option, nor within one year after exercise of the option, any gain realized by the optionee on the subsequent sale of such shares is treated as a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes. If the shares are sold prior to the expiration of such periods, the lesser of (a) the difference between the exercise price and the value of the stock at the date of exercise and (b) the amount realized on disposition over the purchase price is treated as compensation to the optionee taxable as ordinary income. The excess gain, if any, is treated as capital gain (which will be short-term or long-term capital gain depending upon the length of time the shares were held). The Company is allowed a deduction for tax purposes only to the extent, and at the time, that the optionee receives ordinary income by reason of the optionee's sale of shares.

The grant of a non-qualified stock option under the 1994 Option Plan also should have no tax effect on the Company or the recipient of the grant. The spread between the exercise price and the market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of exercise of a non-qualified option is taxable to the optionee as ordinary income on the exercise of the option, and the Company has a corresponding deduction.

Stockholder approval is required to increase the aggregate number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to options that may be granted under the Plan. The Plan currently provides for the grant of options to purchase an aggregate of 1,020,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Options to purchase

897,225 shares have been granted and are outstanding under the Plan as of September 30, 2002, of which 372,000 of such options were granted to directors and 179,000 to non-director officers.

The Plan does not require that awards be made to any particular person or persons other than the annual awards to non-employee directors. By way of background, during fiscal 2002, options to purchase 203,800 shares were awarded under the Plan. The number of shares subject to options granted to the Named Executive Officers under the Plan is set forth in the table above under Executive Compensation-Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year. The number of shares subject to options granted to all current executive officers as a group during fiscal 2002 was 89,000. The number of shares subject to options granted to non-employee directors during fiscal 2002 was 12,000.

The Company's Board of Directors has approved and submitted to the stockholders of the Company amendments to the Plan to increase by 100,000 shares (to an aggregate of 1,120,000 shares) the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to options that may be granted under the Plan.

The amendment to the Plan requires approval by a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company represented at the annual meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE IN FAVOR OF THESE AMENDMENTS TO THE PLAN.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors has selected KPMG LLP as the Company's independent public auditors for the year ended June 30, 2003 and has further directed that management submit the selection of independent public accountants for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. KPMG LLP has audited the Company's financial statements since 1985. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent public accountants is not required by the Company's Bylaws or otherwise. However, the Board is submitting the selection of KPMG LLP to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. In the event the stockholders fail to ratify the selection, the Board will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm.

Even if the selection is ratified, the Board in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the Board feels that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting will be required to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP.
