AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO THE
SHORT FORM BASE SHELF PROSPECTUS DATED NOVEMBER 8, 2007

New Issue

October 29, 2008

ROGERS COMMUNICATIONS INC.

US$4,000,000,000
Debt Securities

Our short form base shelf prospectus dated November 8, 2007 (the "prospectus") is hereby amended (as amended, the "amended prospectus") to increase the aggregate amount of debt securities that may be offered from time to time under the prospectus from US$2,000,000,000 to US$4,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency used to denominate the debt securities at the time of offering). In particular, the prospectus is amended by deleting the references to "US$2,000,000,000" contained on the face page of the prospectus and substituting therefore "US$4,000,000,000". The first paragraph of the text on the face page of the prospectus, as so amended, reads as follows:

"We may offer from time to time, during the 25 month period that this prospectus, including any amendments hereto, remains effective, debt securities in an aggregate amount not to exceed US$4,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency used to denominate the debt securities at the time of offering). These debt securities may consist of debentures, notes or other types of debt and may be issuable in one or more series. The basis for calculating the dollar value of debt securities distributed under this prospectus will be the aggregate principal amount of debt securities that we issue except in the case of any debt securities that are issued at an original issue discount, the dollar value of which will be calculated on the basis of the gross proceeds that we receive."

As of the date of this amendment, we have distributed under this prospectus debt securities with an aggregate principal amount of US$1,750,000,000.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE OR PROVINCIAL SECURITIES REGULATOR HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR DETERMINED IF THE AMENDED PROSPECTUS IS TRUTHFUL OR COMPLETE. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

Under the multijurisdictional disclosure system adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, we are permitted to prepare the amended prospectus in accordance with Canadian disclosure requirements, which are different from those of the United States. We prepare our financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and are subject to Canadian and U.S. auditing and auditor independence standards. They may not be comparable to financial statements of U.S. companies.

Owning the debt securities may subject you to tax consequences both in the United States and Canada. You should read the tax discussion, if any, in any applicable prospectus supplement. The amended prospectus or any applicable prospectus supplement may not describe tax considerations that may be relevant to you.

Your ability to enforce civil liabilities under the U.S. federal securities laws may be affected adversely because we are organized under the laws of British Columbia, Canada, most of our directors, substantially all of our officers and most of the experts named in the amended prospectus are Canadian residents, and substantially all of our assets are located outside the United States.

The prospectus is further amended by deleting the last sentence of the first paragraph under the heading "Forward-Looking Information" and substituting therefor the following sentence:

"Forward-looking information is based on current expectations and various factors and assumptions applied which we believe to be reasonable at the time applied, including but not limited to general economic and industry growth rates, currency exchange rates, product and service pricing levels and competitive intensity, subscriber growth and usage rates, changes in government regulation, technology deployment, device availability, the timing of new product launches, content and equipment costs, the integration of acquisitions, and industry structure and stability."

The prospectus is further amended by deleting the first four sentences under the heading "Rogers Communications Inc." and substituting therefor the following four sentences:

"We are a diversified public Canadian communications and media company. We are engaged in wireless voice and data communications services through Rogers Wireless, Canada's largest wireless provider and the operator of the country's only national GSM/HSPA based network. Through Rogers Cable we are one of Canada's largest providers of cable television services as well as high-speed Internet access and telephony services. Through Rogers Media Inc. ("Rogers Media") we are engaged in radio and television broadcasting, televised shopping, magazines and trade publications, and sports entertainment."

The prospectus is further amended by deleting references to "The Bank of New York" as trustee under the indenture and substituting therefor "The Bank of New York Mellon" and by amending references to the indenture being a form to reflect that the indenture was executed on August 6, 2008. In particular, the prospectus is amended by deleting the first sentence of the second paragraph under the heading "Description of Debt Securities" and substituting therefor the following sentence:

"The senior debt securities and the subordinated debt securities may be issued under the indenture between us and The Bank of New York Mellon, as trustee, dated as of August 6, 2008, as supplemented by one or more supplemental indentures, a copy of such indenture is attached as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part."

The prospectus is further amended by deleting the first two sentences of the second paragraph under the heading "Description of Debt Securities – Events of Default" and substituting therefor the following sentence:

"If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (f) above) occurs and is continuing in respect of a series of debt securities, the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of the affected series may declare the principal of all outstanding debt securities of such series due and payable."

The prospectus is further amended by deleting the following text contained in the third paragraph under the heading "Description of Debt Securities – Events of Default" commencing in the third line of that paragraph:

"(all considered as one class unless it is in respect of an Event of Default specified in clause (a) or (b) above, in which case each series so affected will be considered separately by series), by written notice to RCI and the trustee, may, on behalf of the holders of all the debt securities of such individual series (in the case of an Event of Default under clause (a) or (b) above) or all such affected series (in all other cases), waive any past Default or Event of Default and"

and substituting therefor the following text:

"acting in writing may, on behalf of the holders of all the debt securities of such individual series,"

The prospectus is further amended by deleting all of the text prior to the proviso in the first sentence of the first paragraph under the heading "Description of Debt Securities – Modification and Waiver" and substituting therefor the following text:

"Modifications and amendments to the indenture, including to any supplemental indenture relating to a series of debt securities, and one or more series of debt securities may be made by RCI (and any applicable guarantors) and the trustee with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of outstanding debt securities of each such series issued under the indenture to which such modification or amendment will apply;"

The prospectus is further amended by deleting the third paragraph under the heading "Description of Debt Securities – Modification and Waiver" and substituting therefor the following paragraph:

"The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any affected series may, on behalf of all holders of the debt securities of such series, waive RCI's compliance with certain covenants and other provisions of the indenture and the supplemental indenture that apply to such series of debt securities, including certain existing defaults and Events of Default and their consequences under the indenture."

The prospectus must be read together with this amendment, any documents incorporated therein by reference and any supplement(s) relating to an offering of debt securities thereunder. The statements contained in the prospectus or in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference therein on or subsequent to November 8, 2007 are modified or superseded for the purposes of this amendment to the extent that a statement contained in any subsequently filed document, which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference therein, modifies or supersedes that statement.

We may offer from time to time, during the 25 month period that this prospectus, including any amendments hereto, remains effective, debt securities in an aggregate amount not to exceed US$2,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency used to denominate the debt securities at the time of offering). These debt securities may consist of debentures, notes or other types of debt and may be issuable in one or more series. NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE OR PROVINCIAL SECURITIES REGULATOR HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR DETERMINED IF THIS PROSPECTUS IS TRUTHFUL OR COMPLETE. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

Under the multijurisdictional disclosure system adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, we are permitted to prepare this prospectus in accordance with Canadian disclosure requirements, which are different from those of the United States. We prepare our financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and are subject to Canadian auditing and auditor independence standards. They may not be comparable to financial statements of U.S. companies.

Owning the debt securities may subject you to tax consequences both in the United States and Canada. You should read the tax discussion, if any, in any applicable prospectus supplement. This prospectus or any applicable prospectus supplement may not describe tax considerations that may be relevant to you.

Your ability to enforce civil liabilities under the U.S. federal securities laws may be affected adversely because we are organized under the laws of British Columbia, Canada, most of our directors, substantially all of our officers and most of the experts named in this prospectus are Canadian residents, and substantially all of our assets are located outside the United States.

The prospectus supplement relating to a particular issue of debt securities will identify each underwriter, dealer or agent engaged by us in connection with the offering and sale of that issue, and will set forth the terms of the offering of such issue, including, to the extent applicable, the proceeds to be received by us and any fees payable to underwriters, dealers or agents. In connection with any offering of debt securities, the underwriters or agents may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the debt securities offered at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. See "Plan of Distribution".

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, each issue of debt securities will be a new issue of debt securities with no established trading market. The debt securities may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions at a fixed price or prices or at non-fixed prices. If offered on a non-fixed price basis, debt securities may be offered at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers. Forward-looking information is based on current expectations and various factors and assumptions applied which we believe to be reasonable at the time applied, including, but not limited to, general economic and industry growth rates, currency exchange rates, product and service pricing levels and competitive intensity, subscriber growth and usage rates, technology deployment, content and equipment costs, the integration of acquisitions, and industry structure and stability.

We caution that all forward-looking information is inherently uncertain and actual results may differ materially from the assumptions, estimates or expectations reflected or contained in the forward-looking information. A number of risk factors could cause our future, actual results and performance to differ materially from those in the forward-looking information, including, but not limited to:

- economic conditions,
- technological change,

Table of Contents

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On June 29, 2007, each of Rogers Cable Inc.'s ("Cable") $1 billion bank credit facility, Rogers Wireless Inc.'s ("Wireless") $700 million bank credit facility and Rogers Media's $600 million bank credit facility were permanently repaid and cancelled and RCI entered into a new unsecured bank credit facility which provides RCI with up to $2.4 billion from a consortium of Canadian financial institutions.

On July 1, 2007, RCI amalgamated with certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Cable and Wireless. The amalgamated entity continues as RCI and Cable and Wireless are no longer separate corporate entities and have ceased to be reporting issuers. This amalgamation does not impact the consolidated results previously reported by RCI and the operating subsidiaries of Cable and Wireless are not part of and are not impacted by the amalgamation.

As a result of the amalgamation, on July 1, 2007, RCI assumed all of the rights and obligations under all of the outstanding Cable and Wireless public debt indentures and cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements. As part of the amalgamation process, on June 29, 2007, Cable and Wireless released all security provided by bonds issued under the Cable deed of trust and the Wireless deed of trust for all of the then outstanding Cable and Wireless senior public debt and cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements. As a result, none of the senior public debt or cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements remain secured by such bonds effective as of June 29, 2007.

As a result of these actions, the outstanding public debt and cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements and the new $2.4 billion bank credit facility are now the obligations of RCI on an unsecured basis. The RCI public debt originally issued by Cable has Rogers Cable Communications Inc. ("RCCI") as a co-obligor and Rogers Wireless Partnership ("RWP") as an unsecured guarantor while the RCI public debt originally issued by Wireless has RWP as a co-obligor and RCCI as an unsecured guarantor. Similarly, RCCI and RWP have provided unsecured guarantees for the new bank credit facility and the cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements. Accordingly, RCI's bank debt, senior public debt and cross-currency interest rate exchange agreements now rank pari passu on an unsecured basis. Our subordinated public debt remains subordinated to our senior debt.

Further details in respect of these transactions are contained in our unaudited consolidated financial statements as at September 30, 2007 and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 and the associated management's discussion and analysis.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION

There have been no material changes in our share and loan capital, on a consolidated basis, from September 30, 2007 to the date of this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Any net proceeds that we expect to receive from the issue of debt securities will be set forth in a prospectus supplement. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, the net proceeds of an offering will be used for any one or more of debt repayment, working capital, acquisitions or other general corporate purposes. We may, from time to time, incur additional debt other than through the issue of debt securities pursuant to this prospectus.

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, each issue of debt securities will be a new issue of debt securities with no established trading market and the debt securities will not be listed on any securities exchange. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. Certain underwriters, dealers or agents may make a market in the debt securities but will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. No assurance can be given that a trading market in debt securities of any issue will develop or as to the liquidity of any such trading market for debt securities.

DESCRIPTION OF DEBT SECURITIES

We may offer unsecured general obligations or secured obligations, which may be senior (the "senior debt securities") or subordinated (the "subordinated debt securities"). The senior debt securities and the subordinated debt securities are together referred to in this prospectus as the "debt securities". Unless otherwise provided in a prospectus supplement, the senior debt securities will have the same rank as all our other unsubordinated debt. The subordinated debt securities may be senior or junior to, or rank pari passu with, our other subordinated obligations and will be entitled to payment only after payment on our senior indebtedness. Any debt securities we sell under this prospectus must be, at the time of sale, investment grade securities, as defined in General Instruction I.A to Form F-9, as promulgated from time to time by the SEC, and will not be convertible for a period of at least one year from the time of sale.

Table of Contents

The senior debt securities and the subordinated debt securities may be issued under an indenture between us and The Bank of New York, as trustee, as supplemented by one or more supplemental indentures, a form of such indenture is attached as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. When we issue debt securities, the terms and provisions that are particular to those securities will be set forth in a supplemental indenture. When we refer to the indenture in this prospectus in respect of a particular series of debt securities, we are referring to the indenture, as supplemented by the supplemental indenture applicable to such series. The following summary is of certain provisions of the form of indenture and certain general features of the debt securities and this summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, all the provisions of the indenture and the provisions of the United States Trust Indenture Act of 1939 (the "TIA"), as amended.

The following description of the terms of the debt securities sets forth certain general terms and provisions. The particular terms of debt securities offered by any prospectus supplement and the extent, if any, to which such general terms and provisions may apply to those debt securities will be described in the related prospectus supplement. Accordingly, for a description of the terms of a particular issue of debt securities, reference must be made to both the related prospectus supplement and to the following description. Prospective investors should rely on information in the applicable prospectus supplement if it is different from the following information. In this description, the words we, us, our, RCI and Rogers Communications Inc. refer to Rogers Communications Inc. (or its successors, if any, under the indenture) and not any of its subsidiaries.

General

The debt securities may be issued in one or more series as may be authorized from time to time. Reference is made to the applicable prospectus supplement for the particular terms of the debt securities being offered, including, where applicable:

- (a) the title of that series,
- (b) any limit on the amount that may be issued in respect of that series,
- (c) whether or not we will issue the series of debt securities in global form and, if so, who the depository will be,
- (d) the maturity date,
- (e) whether the debt securities are to be issued at an original issue discount and/or whether the debt securities are to be interest bearing,
- (f) if the debt securities are to be interest bearing, the annual interest rate or interest basis upon which the annual interest rate may be determined, any credit spread or margin over such interest rate, which may be fixed or variable, or any other method for determining the interest rate and the date interest will begin to accrue, the dates interest will be payable and the regular record dates for interest payment dates or the method for determining such dates,
- (g) whether or not the debt securities will be secured or unsecured, and the terms of any security provided,
- (h) any guarantees, including the terms of any such guarantees,
- (i) the ranking of the debt securities of any series relative to our other debt and the terms of the subordination of any series of subordinated debt securities,

- (j) the place where payments will be payable,
- (k) our right, if any, to defer payment of interest and the maximum length of any such deferral period,
- (l) the date, if any, after which, and the price at which, we may, at our option, redeem the series of debt securities pursuant to any optional redemption provisions,

- (q) the denominations in which we will issue the series of debt securities, and
- (r) any other specific material terms, preferences, rights or limitations of, or restrictions on, the series of debt securities.

Unless otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement, any guarantee in respect of debt securities would fully and unconditionally guarantee the payment of the principal of, and interest and premium, if any, on, such debt securities when such amounts become due and payable, whether at maturity thereof or by acceleration, notice of redemption or otherwise. In addition, if there is more than one guarantor for any debt securities, the guarantees would be joint and several as between the guarantors. We expect any guarantee provided in respect of senior debt securities would constitute a senior, unsecured obligation of the applicable guarantor. Other debt securities that we may issue also may be guaranteed and the terms of such guarantees (including any subordination) would be described in the applicable prospectus supplement and set forth the applicable supplemental indenture. If any debt securities are to be guaranteed, we expect that Rogers Cable Communications Inc., an Ontario corporation ("RCCI"), and Rogers Wireless Partnership, an Ontario partnership ("RWP") would be the guarantors. RCCI and RWP are our wholly-owned subsidiaries.

One or more series of debt securities may be sold at a discount below or premium above their stated principal amount, bearing no interest or interest at a rate which at the time of issuance is below or above market rates. One or more series of debt securities may be variable rate debt securities that may be exchanged for fixed rate debt securities.

Debt securities may be issued where the amount of principal and/or interest payable is determined by reference to one or more currency exchange rates, commodity prices, equity indices, securities, instruments, loans or other factors. Holders of such securities may receive a principal amount or a payment of interest that is greater than or less than the amount of principal or interest otherwise payable on such dates, depending upon the value of the applicable currencies, commodities, equity indices, securities, instruments, loans or other factors. Information as to the methods for determining the amount of principal or interest, if any, payable on any date, and the currencies, commodities, equity indices, securities, instruments, loans or other factors to which the amount payable on such date is linked, will be set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

The term debt securities includes debt securities denominated in Canadian dollars, U.S. dollars or, if specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, in any other freely transferable currency or units based on or relating to foreign currencies.

We expect most debt securities to be issued in fully registered form without coupons and in denominations of Cdn$1,000 or US$1,000 and any integral multiple thereof. Subject to the limitations provided in the indenture and except as otherwise provided in the applicable prospectus supplement, debt securities which are issued in registered form may be transferred or exchanged at the office of the trustee maintained in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York or the principal corporate trust office of the trustee, without the payment of any service charge, other than any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Optional Redemption

The debt securities will be redeemable, in whole or in part, at the option of RCI at any time at a redemption price specified in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Notice of any redemption will be given at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each holder of the debt securities to be redeemed.

Unless RCI defaults in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the debt securities or portions of the debt securities called for redemption.

In the case of a partial redemption of debt securities, selection of debt securities from such series for redemption will be made on a pro rata basis. If any debt security is redeemed in part, the notice of redemption relating to such debt security shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed; provided that no debt security in an aggregate principal amount of Cdn$1,000 or US$1,000, as the case may be, or less shall be redeemed in part. A replacement debt security in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued in the name of the holder thereof upon cancellation of the original debt security.

Redemption Upon Changes in Withholding Taxes

Each series of debt securities will also be subject to redemption as a whole, but not in part, at the option of RCI at any time, on not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' prior written notice, at 100% of the principal amount, together with accrued interest thereon to the redemption date, in the event RCI has become or would become obligated to pay, on the next date on which any amount would be payable with respect to such series of debt securities, any Additional Amounts with respect to such series of debt securities as a result of a change in the laws (including any regulations promulgated thereunder) or treaties of Canada (or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein), or any change in any official position regarding the application or interpretation of such laws, regulations or treaties, which change is announced or becomes effective on or after the date of issuance of such series. See the subsection entitled "— Additional Amounts".

RCI may not consolidate or amalgamate with or merge with or into any other Person or convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any Person by liquidation, winding-up or otherwise (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) unless: (a) either (1) RCI shall be the continuing corporation or (2) the Person (if other than RCI) formed by such consolidation or amalgamation or into which RCI is merged or the Person which acquires by conveyance, transfer, lease or other disposition the properties and assets of RCI substantially as an entirety (i) shall be a corporation, company, partnership or trust organized and validly existing under (A) the federal laws of Canada or the laws of any Province thereof or (B) the laws of the United States or any State thereof or the District of Columbia, and (ii) shall assume by operation of law or expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture with respect to all debt securities of each series outstanding under the indenture, all of the obligations of RCI under such debt securities; and (b) immediately after giving effect to such transaction (and, to the extent applicable to any additional covenants of a particular series of debt securities, treating any Debt which becomes an obligation of RCI or a Subsidiary in connection with or as a result of such transaction as having been incurred at the time of such transaction), no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

In the event of any transaction described in and complying with the conditions listed in the immediately preceding paragraph in which RCI is not the continuing corporation, the successor or continuing Person formed or remaining will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, RCI under the indenture, and thereafter RCI will, except in the case of a lease, be discharged from all obligations and covenants under the indenture and the outstanding debt securities of each series.

Events of Default

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement of a particular series of debt securities, an Event of Default will occur with respect to a series of debt securities pursuant to the indenture if:

- (a) there shall be a failure to pay when due the principal of (or any applicable redemption price of) any of the debt securities of such series; or
- (b) there shall be a failure to pay any interest or any Additional Amounts on any of the debt securities of such series for 30 days after the date when due; or

- (d) (i) there shall have occurred one or more defaults of RCI or any Restricted Subsidiary in the payment of the principal of or premium on any indebtedness for money borrowed having an aggregate principal amount in excess of the greater of $100.0 million and 3.5% of Shareholders' Equity, when the same becomes due and payable at the Stated Maturity thereof, and such default or defaults shall continue after any applicable grace period and have not been cured or waived or (ii) there shall occur and be continuing any acceleration of the maturity of the principal amount of any indebtedness for money borrowed of RCI or any Restricted Subsidiary having an aggregate principal amount in excess of the greater of $100.0 million and 3.5% of Shareholders' Equity and, in any case referred to in the foregoing clause (i), such Debt has not been paid or, in any case referred to in the foregoing clause (ii), such acceleration has not been rescinded or annulled, in each case within 10 days of such nonpayment or acceleration; or

(e) any judgments or orders aggregating an amount in excess of the greater of $100.0 million and 3.5% of Shareholders' Equity rendered against RCI or any Restricted Subsidiary remain unsatisfied and unstayed for 60 consecutive days; or

(f) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization affecting RCI or any Restricted Subsidiary shall occur.

If an Event of Default specified in clause (a) or (b) above shall occur and be continuing in respect of one or more series of debt securities, the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of an affected series may declare the principal of all outstanding debt securities of such series due and payable. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (a), (b) or (f) above) shall occur and be continuing in respect of one or more series of debt securities, the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of all such affected series (considered as one class) may declare the principal of all outstanding debt securities of each such series due and payable. If an Event of Default specified in clause (f) above occurs and is continuing in respect of a series of debt securities, then the principal of all outstanding debt securities of such series shall become due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the trustee or any holder of such series.

At any time after a declaration of acceleration with respect to one or more series of debt securities has been made, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the trustee, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of such affected series (all considered as one class unless it is in respect of an Event of Default specified in clause (a) or (b) above, in which case each series so affected will be considered separately by series), by written notice to RCI and the trustee, may, on behalf of the holders of all the debt securities of such individual series (in the case of an Event of Default under clause (a) or (b) above) or all such affected series (in all other cases), waive any past Default or Event of Default and rescind and annul such declaration of acceleration and its consequences if (a) RCI has paid or deposited, or caused to be paid or deposited, with the trustee a sum sufficient to pay (i) all sums paid or advanced by the trustee with respect to such series of debt securities and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the trustee, its agents and counsel, (ii) the principal of, and interest, premium or other amounts, if any, on, any debt securities of such series that have become due and payable otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, and (iii) to the extent provided in the applicable prospectus supplement and to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful, interest upon overdue interest at the rate provided for such purpose in the prospectus supplement for such series; and (b) all Events of Default, other than the nonpayment of principal of, or interest, premium or other amounts, if any, on, the debt securities of such series which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived.

The indenture contains a provision entitling the trustee to be funded and indemnified by the holders of debt securities of the applicable series before proceeding to exercise any right or power under such indenture at the request or direction of such holders. Subject to such provisions for funding and indemnification of the Trustee and certain other limitations and conditions contained in the indenture, the indenture provides that the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of outstanding debt securities of the applicable series (or all affected series, as applicable) may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the trustee under the indenture. The indenture provides that no holder of debt securities of any series may pursue a remedy with respect to the indenture except under certain circumstances where the trustee has failed to act.

During the existence of an Event of Default, the trustee is required to exercise such rights and powers vested in it under the indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise as a prudent person would exercise under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

RCI will be required to furnish to the trustee annually a statement as to any default by RCI in the performance and observance of its obligations under the indenture.

Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance of Indenture

Unless otherwise indicated in the relevant prospectus supplement of a particular series of debt securities, RCI may, at its option, and at any time, elect to have the obligations of RCI (and any applicable guarantors) discharged with respect to all outstanding debt securities or all outstanding debt securities of any series ("defeasance"). Such defeasance means that RCI (and any such guarantors) shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by the outstanding debt securities of such series and to have satisfied its other obligations under the indenture, except for (i) the rights of holders of outstanding debt securities of such series to receive payments in respect of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such debt securities when such payments are due, (ii) RCI's obligations under the indenture with respect to such debt securities relating to the issuance of temporary debt securities, the registration, transfer and exchange of debt securities, the replacement of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen debt securities, the payment of Additional Amounts, the maintenance of any office or agency for payments in respect of such debt securities, the holding of money for security payments in trust and statements as to compliance with such indenture, (iii) RCI's obligations under the indenture in connection with the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the trustee, (iv) the defeasance provisions of the indenture and (v) RCI's right of redemption in the event of Additional Amounts becoming payable under certain circumstances. In addition, RCI may, at its option and at any time, elect to be released from its obligations (and to release any applicable guarantors from their obligations) with respect to certain covenants in respect of any series of debt securities under the indenture (including those described under the subsection entitled "—Provision of Financial Information") and any and all additional and different covenants identified in the applicable prospectus supplement of such series of debt securities (unless otherwise indicated in such prospectus supplement) ("covenant defeasance") and any omission to comply with such obligations shall not constitute a Default or an Event of Default with respect to such series of debt securities. In the event covenant defeasance occurs in respect of a series, the events (excluding failure to pay and bankruptcy and insolvency events) described under the subsection entitled "—Events of Default", as well as any additional and different Events of Default specified in the prospectus supplement of such series, will no longer constitute Events of Default with respect to the debt securities of such series.

Table of Contents

In order to exercise either defeasance or covenant defeasance, (i) RCI must irrevocably deposit with the trustee, in trust, cash in the currency or currencies in which such debt securities are payable, certain Government Obligations, or a combination thereof in such amounts as will be sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants or chartered accountants, to pay the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest on the outstanding debt securities of such series on the Stated Maturity (or redemption date, if applicable) of such principal (and premium, if any) or installment of interest; (ii) in the case of defeasance, RCI shall have delivered to the trustee an opinion of counsel in the United States stating that (x) RCI has received from, or there has been published by, the Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (y) since the date of the applicable supplemental indenture with respect to a series of debt securities, there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such opinion of counsel shall confirm that, the holders of the outstanding debt securities of such series will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred; (iii) in the case of covenant defeasance, RCI shall have delivered to the trustee an opinion of counsel in the United States to the effect that the holders of the outstanding debt securities of such series will not recognize income, gains or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; (iv) in the case of defeasance or covenant defeasance, RCI shall have delivered to the trustee an opinion of counsel in Canada to the effect that holders of the outstanding debt securities of such series will not recognize income, gain or loss for Canadian federal or provincial income tax or other tax (including withholding tax) purposes as a result of such defeasance or covenant defeasance, as applicable, and will be subject to Canadian federal or provincial income tax and other tax (including withholding tax) on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance or covenant defeasance, as applicable, had not occurred (which condition may not be waived by any holder or the trustee); and (v) RCI must comply with certain other conditions.

Additional Amounts

All payments made by RCI under or with respect to the debt securities will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future tax, duty, levy, impost, assessment or other governmental charge imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Government of Canada or of any province or territory thereof or by any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax (hereinafter "Taxes"), unless RCI is required to withhold or deduct Taxes by law or by the interpretation or administration thereof. If RCI is so required to withhold or deduct any amount for or on account of Taxes from any payment made under or with respect to the debt securities, RCI will pay as interest such additional amounts ("Additional Amounts") as may be necessary so that the net amount received by each holder of such debt securities in respect of a beneficial owner (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding or deduction will not be less than the amount such holder would have received in respect of the beneficial owner if such Taxes had not been withheld or deducted; provided that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to a payment made to a holder of debt securities in respect of a beneficial owner (each an "Excluded Person") (i) with which RCI does not deal at arm's length (within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada)) at the time of making such payment, (ii) which is subject to such Taxes by reason of its being connected with Canada or any province or territory thereof otherwise than by the acquisition or mere holding of debt securities or the receipt of payments thereunder, (iii) which is subject to such Taxes by reason of its failure to comply with any certification, identification, documentation or other reporting requirements if compliance is required by law, regulation, administrative practice or an applicable treaty as a pre-condition to exemption from, or a reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of, such Taxes, (iv) if the debt securities are presented for payment more than 15 days after the date on which such payment or such debt securities became due and payable or the date on which payment thereof is duly provided for, whichever is later (except to the extent that the holder would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts had the debt securities been presented on the last day of such 15-day period) or (v) to the extent that such withholding is imposed on a payment to a holder or beneficial owner who is an individual pursuant to European Union Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive. RCI will also (a) make such withholding or deduction and (b) remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant authority in accordance with applicable law. Upon the written request of a holder of debt securities, RCI will furnish, as soon as reasonably practicable, to such holder of debt securities certified copies of tax receipts evidencing such payment by RCI. RCI will indemnify and hold harmless each holder of debt securities in respect of a beneficial owner (other than an Excluded Person) and, upon written request of any holder of debt securities (other than an Excluded Person), reimburse such holder for the amount of (i) any such Taxes so levied or imposed and paid by such holder as a result of any failure of RCI to withhold, deduct or remit to the relevant tax authority, on a timely basis, the full amounts required under applicable law; and (ii) any such Taxes so levied or imposed with respect to any reimbursement under the foregoing clause (i), so that the net amount received by such holder in respect of a beneficial owner after such reimbursement would not be less than the net amount such holder would have received in respect of the beneficial owner if such taxes on such reimbursement had not been imposed.

At least 30 days prior to each date on which any payment under or with respect to the debt securities is due and payable, if RCI will be obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to such payment, RCI will deliver to the trustee an officer's certificate stating the fact that such Additional Amounts will be payable, stating the amounts so payable and setting forth such other information necessary to enable the trustee, on behalf of the Company, to pay such Additional Amounts to holders of debt securities on the payment date. Whenever in the indenture there is mentioned, in any context, the payment of principal (and premium, if any), redemption price, interest or any other amount payable under or with respect to any debt securities, such mention shall be deemed to include mention of the payment of Additional Amounts to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

In the event that RCI has become or would become obligated to pay, on the next date on which any amount would be payable under or with respect to the debt securities of either series, any Additional Amounts as a result of certain changes affecting Canadian withholding tax laws, RCI may redeem all, but not less than all, the debt securities of such series at any time at 100% of the principal amount, together with accrued interest thereon to the redemption date. See the subsection entitled "— Redemption Upon Changes in Withholding Taxes".

Modification and Waiver

Modifications and amendments to the indenture, including to any supplemental indenture relating to a series of debt securities, and one or more series of debt securities may be made by RCI (and any applicable guarantors) and the trustee with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of outstanding debt securities of all series issued under the indenture to which such modification or amendment will apply (considered as one class); provided, however, that no such modification or amendment may, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding debt security of such series affected thereby: (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on, any such debt security, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon, or reduce the redemption price thereof, or change the coin or currency in which any such debt security or any premium or the interest thereon is payable, or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment after the Stated Maturity thereof (or, in the case of redemption, on or after the redemption date); (ii) reduce the percentage in principal amount of outstanding debt securities of such series, the consent of whose holders is necessary to amend or waive compliance with certain provisions of the indenture or the applicable supplemental indenture or to waive certain defaults; or (iii) modify any of the provisions relating to the modification or amendment of the indenture or the applicable supplemental indenture which provisions require the consent of holders of outstanding debt securities of such series or relating to the waiver of past defaults or certain covenants, except to increase the percentage of outstanding debt securities of such series the consent of whose holders is required for such actions or to provide that certain other provisions of the indenture or the applicable supplemental indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the holder of each debt security of such series affected thereby.

In addition, modifications and amendments to the indenture and the debt securities may be made by RCI (and any applicable guarantors) and the trustee without the consent of any holders of debt securities in order to, among other things, (i) provide certain additional rights or benefits to the holders of debt securities, (ii) cure any ambiguity or correct or supplement any defective or inconsistent provision or make any other change to the indenture or the debt securities, provided, in each case, that such modification or amendment does not adversely affect the interests of the holders of debt securities of any series in any material respect, and (iii) give effect to any direction or other act of the holders of debt securities permitted to be given, made or taken under the indenture.

Table of Contents

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of all affected series (considered as one class) may waive compliance with certain covenants and provisions of the indenture and the supplemental indenture that apply to such series of debt securities.

Global Securities

We expect the following provisions to apply to all debt securities.

The debt securities of a series may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global securities that will be deposited with, or on behalf of, a depository (the "depository") identified in the prospectus supplement. Global securities will be issued in registered form and in either temporary or definitive form. Unless and until it is exchanged in whole or in part for the individual debt securities, a global security may not be transferred except as a whole by the depository for such global security to a nominee of such depository or by a nominee of such depository to such depository or another nominee of such depository or by such depository or any such nominee to a successor of such depository or a nominee of such successor.

The specific terms of the depository arrangement with respect to any debt securities of a series and the rights of and limitations upon owners of beneficial interests in a global security will be described in the prospectus supplement. We expect that the following provisions will generally apply to depository arrangements.

Upon the issuance of a global security, the depository for such global security or its nominee will credit, on its book-entry registration and transfer system, the respective principal amounts of the individual debt securities represented by such global security to the accounts of persons that have accounts with such depository. Such accounts shall be designated by the dealers, underwriters or agents with respect to the debt securities or by us if such debt securities are offered and sold directly by us. Ownership of beneficial interests in a global security will be limited to persons that have accounts with the applicable depository ("participants") or persons that may hold interests through participants. Ownership of beneficial interests in such global security will be shown on, and the transfer of that ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by the applicable depository or its nominee with respect to interests of participants and the records of participants with respect to interests of persons other than participants. The laws of some states require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of such securities in definitive form. Such limits and such laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a global security.

So long as the depository for a global security, or its nominee, is the registered owner of a global security, except as required by law, such depository or such nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner or holder of the debt securities represented by that global security for all purposes under the indenture governing those debt securities. Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in a global security will not be entitled to have any of the individual debt securities of the series represented by that global security registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of any debt securities of such series in definitive form and will not be considered the owners or holders thereof under the indenture governing such debt securities.

Payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest, if any, on individual debt securities represented by a global security registered in the name of a depository or its nominee will be made to the depository or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered owner of the global security representing the debt securities. None of RCI, the trustee for the debt securities, any paying agent, or any registrar for the debt securities will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made by the depository or any participants on account of beneficial ownership interests of the global security for the debt securities or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

We expect that the depository for a series of debt securities or its nominee, upon receipt of any payment of principal, premium or interest in respect of a global security representing the debt securities, immediately will credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the principal amount of such global security for the debt securities as shown on the records of the depository or its nominee. We also expect that payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in a global security held through such participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in street name. Such payments will be the responsibility of such participants.

If the depository for a series of debt securities is at any time unwilling, unable or ineligible to continue as depository and a successor depository is not appointed by us within 90 days, we will issue definitive debt securities of that series in exchange for the global security or securities representing that series of debt securities. In addition, we may at any time and in our sole discretion, subject to any limitations described in the prospectus supplement relating to the debt securities, determine not to have any debt securities of a series represented by one or more global securities, and, in such event, will issue definitive debt securities of that series in exchange for the global security or securities representing that series of debt securities. A global security for a series of debt securities will also be exchangeable for definitive debt securities in the event that an Event of Default in respect of such series shall occur and be continuing. If definitive debt securities are issued, an owner of a beneficial interest in a global security will be entitled to physical delivery of definitive debt securities of the series represented by that global security equal in principal amount to that beneficial interest and to have the debt securities registered in its name.

Concerning the Trustee

The Bank of New York will be the trustee under the indenture.

Governing Law

The indenture, any supplemental indentures and the debt securities will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

Enforceability of Judgments

Since substantially all of the assets of RCI are located outside the United States, any judgment obtained in the United States against RCI, including judgments with respect to the payment of principal or redemption price on the debt securities, may not be collectible within the United States. RCI has been informed by its Canadian counsel, Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP, that, under the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable in that province (collectively, "Applicable Laws"), a court of competent jurisdiction in the Province of Ontario (an "Ontario Court") would give a judgment based upon a final and conclusive in personam judgment of a court exercising jurisdiction in the State of New York ("New York Court") for a sum certain, obtained against RCI with respect to a claim arising out of the indenture and the debt securities (a "New York Judgment"), without reconsideration of the merits (a) provided that (i) an action to enforce the New York Judgment is commenced in the Ontario Court within any applicable limitation period; (ii) the Ontario Court has discretion to stay or decline to hear an action on the New York Judgment if the New York Judgment is under appeal or there is another subsisting judgment in any jurisdiction relating to the same cause of action as the New York Judgment; (iii) the Ontario Court will render judgment only in Canadian dollars; and (iv) an action in the Ontario Court on the New York Judgment may be affected by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally; and (b) subject to the following defenses: (i) that the New York Judgment was obtained by fraud or in a manner contrary to the principles of natural justice; (ii) that the New York Judgment is for a claim which under Applicable Laws would be characterized as based on a foreign revenue, expropriatory, penal or other public law; (iii) that the New York Judgment is contrary to public policy or to an order made by the Attorney General of Canada under the Foreign Extraterritorial Measures Act (Canada) or by the Competition Tribunal under the Competition Act (Canada) in respect of certain judgments referred to in these statutes; or (iv) that the New York Judgment has been satisfied or is void or voidable under the laws of the State of New York.

Consent to Jurisdiction and Service

The indenture provides that RCI will appoint CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York 10011, as its agent for service of process in any suit, action or proceeding with respect to the indenture, any supplemental indentures or the debt securities issued thereunder and for actions brought under federal or state laws brought in any federal or state court located in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York and submits to such jurisdiction.

Our interest requirements amounted to $620 million for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2006 and $592 million for the 12-month period ended September 30, 2007. Our earnings before interest expense and income taxes for the 12-month periods ended December 31, 2006 and September 30, 2007 were $1,298 million and $1,329 million, respectively, which is 2.1 times and 2.2 times our interest requirements for such periods.

The earnings coverage ratios and associated financial information presented above do not give effect to the issuance of debt securities that may be issued pursuant to any prospectus supplement since the aggregate principal amounts and the terms of such debt securities are not presently known. Nor do they give effect to the certain borrowings by RCI or the repayment and redemption of certain long-term financial liabilities of RCI subsequent to the periods presented. For a description of certain borrowings of, and repayments and redemptions by, RCI during the nine months ended September 30, 2007, see Note 6 to our unaudited consolidated financial statements as at September 30, 2007 and for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 and our management's discussion and analysis in respect of those statements. Earnings coverage ratios adjusted to give effect to the issuance and repayment, redemption or other retirement of long-term financial liabilities and to reflect such other adjustments as are required by applicable Canadian securities law requirements will be presented for the prescribed periods in the applicable prospectus supplement.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the debt securities involves risk. Before deciding whether to invest in the debt securities, you should consider carefully the risks described in the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus (including subsequent documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus) and, if applicable, those described in a prospectus supplement relating to a specific offering of debt securities. Discussions of certain risk and uncertainties affecting our business are provided in our annual information form, our management's discussion and analysis for the year ended December 31, 2006 and our management's discussion and analysis for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 (or, as applicable, our annual information form and our management's discussion and analysis for subsequent periods), each of which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Any of these risks could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations. Additional risks not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial may also materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

ENFORCEABILITY OF CERTAIN CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are a corporation organized under the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada and substantially all of our assets are located in Canada. In addition, most of our directors, substantially all of our officers and most of the experts named herein are resident outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for U.S. investors to effect service of process within the United States upon such directors, officers or experts to enforce against them judgements of U.S. courts based upon, among other things, the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws. In addition, we have been advised by Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP, our Canadian counsel, that there is some doubt as to the enforceability in original actions in Canadian courts of liabilities based upon the U.S. federal securities laws, and as to the enforceability in Canadian courts of judgments of U.S. courts obtained in actions based upon the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws.

CERTAIN INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The applicable prospectus supplement may describe the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to investors described therein of purchasing, holding and disposing of the debt securities offered thereunder. The applicable prospectus supplement may also describe certain U.S. federal income tax considerations generally applicable to the purchase, holding and disposition of those debt securities by an investor who is a United States person.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters relating to debt securities offered by this short form base shelf prospectus will be passed upon on our behalf by Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP, our Canadian counsel, and Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, our U.S. counsel. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, certain legal matters in connection with debt securities so offered will be passed upon for the underwriters, dealers or agents, as applicable, in respect of that offering by Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP, in respect of matters of Canadian law, and Shearman & Sterling LLP, in respect of matters of United States law. As of the date of this prospectus, the partners and associates of Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP, as a group, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of our outstanding securities of any class and less than 1% of the outstanding securities of any class of our associates or affiliates.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO OFFEREES OR PURCHASERS

INDEMNIFICATION

Rogers Communications Inc.

Under Section 160 of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) (the “BCBCA”),

- (a) a director or officer of Rogers Communications Inc. (“RCI”),
- (b) a former director or officer of RCI,
- (c) director, former director, officer or former officer of another corporation at a time when the corporation is or was an affiliate of RCI or at the request of RCI,
- (d) an individual who is or was, or holds or held a position equivalent to that of, a director or officer of a partnership, trust, joint venture or other unincorporated entity, at the request of RCI (any corporation or entity referred to in (c) or (d), an “associated corporation”; and any individual described in (a) through (d), an “eligible individual”) or
- (e) any heirs and personal or other legal representatives of an eligible individual (any person described in (e) and any eligible individual, an “eligible party”) may be indemnified by RCI against all judgments, penalties or fines awarded or imposed or to which the eligible party may be liable in, or amounts paid in settlement of, any civil, criminal, quasi-criminal, administrative or regulatory action or proceeding or investigative action, whether current, threatened, pending or completed, in which the eligible party, by reason of an eligible individual being or having been a director or officer of, or holding or having held a position equivalent to that of a director or officer of, RCI or an associated corporation is or may be joined as a party, or is or may be liable for or in respect of a judgment, penalty or fine in, or costs, charges and expenses, including legal and other fees (“expenses”) related to, any such action or proceeding (an “eligible proceeding”); and after the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, may be paid the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the eligible party in respect of that proceeding.

Under Section 161 of the BCBCA, an eligible party must, after the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, be paid by RCI the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the eligible party in respect of the eligible proceeding if the eligible party is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise, or is substantially successful on the merits, in the outcome of the proceeding.

Under Section 162 of the BCBCA, an eligible party may be paid by RCI, as expenses are incurred in advance of the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the eligible party in respect of that proceeding; provided that RCI must not pay such expenses unless RCI first receives from the eligible party a written undertaking that the eligible party will repay the amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that (i) the eligible individual in relation to the subject matter of the eligible proceeding did not act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of RCI or associated corporation, as the case may be, (ii) in the case of an eligible proceeding other than a civil proceeding, the eligible individual did not have reasonable grounds for believing the eligible individual’s conduct in respect of which the proceeding was brought was lawful, (iii) the eligible proceeding is brought by or on behalf of RCI or an associated corporation or (iv) in certain circumstances, RCI is or was prohibited from doing so by its charter (each of items (i) to (iv), a “statutory prohibition”).

Under Section 163 of the BCBCA, RCI must not make an indemnification or payment under Sections 160 to 162 if there is a statutory prohibition.

Under Section 164 of the BCBCA, the Supreme Court of British Columbia may, on application of RCI or an eligible party, order RCI to indemnify or to pay expenses, despite Sections 160 to 163 of the BCBCA.

The articles of RCI provide that RCI shall indemnify, and pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding of, a director or officer or former director or officer of RCI or a person who acts or acted at RCI’s request as a director or officer, or in a similar capacity of another entity, and the heirs and personal or other legal representatives of such a person, in accordance with, and to the fullest extent and in all circumstances permitted by the BCBCA. The articles further provide that RCI may enter into indemnification agreements, including without limitation, provisions therein whereby a court order approving indemnification will be applied for, if required. The foregoing rights and powers of RCI are in addition to and not in substitution for any other rights and powers regarding indemnification, payment of expenses and insurance.

Under the BCBCA, the articles of RCI may affect the power or obligation of RCI to give an indemnity or pay expenses to the extent that the articles prohibit giving the indemnity or paying the expenses. As indicated above, this is subject to the overriding power of the Supreme Court of British Columbia under Section 164 of the BCBCA.

As contemplated by Section 165 of the BCBCA, RCI has purchased insurance against potential claims against the directors or officers of RCI and against loss for which RCI may be required or permitted by law to indemnify such directors and officers.

RCI has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its officers and directors that indemnify such persons to the maximum amount permitted by applicable law. Pursuant to these agreements, RCI has agreed to provide such persons an advance of defense costs prior to final disposition of a proceeding, subject to an obligation to repay in certain circumstances.

Rogers Cable Communications Inc.

Under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) (the “OBCA”), Rogers Cable Communications Inc. (“RCCI”) may indemnify a present or former director or officer or an individual who acts or acted at RCCI’s request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with RCCI or other entity, provided that the director or officer acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of RCCI and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual’s conduct was lawful. Such indemnification may be made in connection with a derivative action only with court approval. A director or officer is entitled to indemnification from RCCI as a matter of right if the individual was not judged by a court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done and fulfilled the conditions set forth above.

In accordance with and subject to the OBCA, the By-laws of RCCI indemnify a director or officer, a former director or officer, or a person who acts or acted at RCCI’s request, as a director or officer of a corporation in which RCCI is or was a shareholder or creditor and his heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding to which he was made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of RCCI or other corporation if he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of RCCI, and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds in believing that his conduct was lawful.

A policy of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance is maintained by RCI, on behalf of RCCI, which insures directors and officers of RCCI for losses as a result of claims based upon their acts or omissions as directors and officers, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act and also reimburses RCCI for payments made pursuant to the indemnity provisions under the OBCA.

Rogers Wireless Partnership

Under the Partnerships Act (Ontario), each partner of Rogers Wireless Partnership (“RWP”) is liable jointly with the other partners for all debts and obligations of RWP incurred while such partner is a partner.

Pursuant to the partnership agreement dated March 2, 2005 forming RWP, the partners of RWP are, as among themselves, liable for, and have agreed to indemnify each other from, the debts, liabilities, obligations and losses of RWP in proportion to the number of partnership units owned by them respectively.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrants have been informed that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.
